Love & Life Cycles

with the Rosicrucian Council

Spotlight

For today's Spotlight we're going to be talking about the Rosicrucian Council. This is kind of a rare occasion because we're talking about a group of Earthlings. Let me explain who they are. They are sort of enlightened people who have become enlightened through four specific traditions that I will talk about in a moment. They ascended into the next Dimension, up into the 4th Dimension. When we think of Ascended Masters, the Rosicrucian Council could be considered as Ascended Masters but they are not in the sense as in having multidimensional access and having knowledge of everything. They are still within the Earthling Soul Group.

They are more enlightened than the majority of the Earthling Soul Group. You can think of them as the Forerunners. They are the Avant Garde of the Earthling Soul Group. Occasionally there are Starseed Souls that make agreements with the Rosicrucian Council and they do assignments together. To my knowledge there are no Starseed Souls that are literally a part of the Rosicrucian Council, but there are some that work with them. I worked with them at some point as well. It's not that uncommon to have some assignment together with them.

Rosicrucian Council is a group of human Souls that are people that existed in the 3rd Dimension, lived life here, ascended or became conscious to a degree through a specific tradition. When they died in that lifetime (it was not a biological ascension, so they did die) they were at the level where they did not need to incarnate again into the 3rd Dimension. Whatever that shift was, it was just enough to move them beyond and then they were free of the karmic link to the 3rd Dimension. That means that they could incarnate into the 3rd Dimension if they wanted to but they also didn't need to anymore. They could remain on the outside of an incarnate environment, still within this Simulation but on the other side of life.

This is what we call death essentially from our perspective, but from the perspective of all the conscious beings it's called the Other Side of Life. The Other Side of Life is still this Simulation so it's still Earth, but it's not incarnate. It's when the Souls do not have the body and have much more access to their prior self-wisdom and so on. That's where the Rosicrucian Council resides. It's a group of people, Souls essentially that exist in the 4th Dimension.

In the human sense it's a secret society of somewhat enlightened people who are here to propagate love and knowledge. That's kind of their main mission. They focus on natural laws, on the cycles of how everything works within this Simulation which we talked about and on the understanding of this Universe. Essentially in how it is created and how it functions. It's about being able to be Love and to recognize the energy of Love in the construct of this Universe and the construct of you as well as a being. It's essentially a study of Self within the Universe and the process of conscious awakening utilizing knowledge and Love. That's what the Rosicrucian pathway of learning is. It's an amalgamation of four techniques.

They are aligned with the Christ Consciousness, what we know as the Universal Law of One or the Christ Consciousness. That's the consciousness that has nothing to do with Jesus Christ, although he was one of the anchors. There are many anchors and the Rosicrucian Council and some of the people who are within that were also anchors of that specific frequency that we call the Christ Consciousness. Christ frequency is Universal Law of One. What that means is one God. One God Source. Everything is Love and Universal Oneness is Love energy and out of that Love many different Simulations and learning environments were constructed. This is essentially what I'm teaching you. It's all the Christ Consciousness pathway.

The Rosicrucian system is aligned with Christ Consciousness and it is a combination of four traditions. The first tradition is Egyptian and Hermetic. Hermes, as in Toth's pathway is of the Egyptian tradition and it is what was originally taught by the Sirian Beings, the Star beings from the 6th Dimension that came to Earth and kind of continued on in Egypt and in other places. People who went through that pathway and became Enlightened are some of those who became a part of the Rosicrucian system.

The second tradition is Kabballah. Kabballah is a Hebrew teaching from the Mesopotamian times and Egyptian times but it actually originated before what we know in this human cycle (this is like a second incarnation of it) but originally it came from Hibiru. Hibiru are a Soul Group that is essentially the same as Earthlings but it is a part of it that was participating in the Namluu experiment. For the ones of you who don't know what I'm talking about, that's okay. But the ones of you who understand the Namluu experiment and the 22 Souls coming together from different species, building altogether a being that is conscious and multidimensional here on Earth that was called Namluu.

The Earthling Soul Group had a small component of itself that participated in that experiment and that later on was rejoined with the Earthling Soul Group that now is among the humans. This is what we know as the Jewish people even though, of course, Judaism is a religion. You know what I'm talking about. But the Hibiru group as in the Soul Group line that now is sort of anchored by the Jewish religion, the origin of that and the Kabballah is what became the mystical teachings of that and had Masters of that tradition within that specific component of the Earthling Soul Group. Some of them are also a part of the Rosicrucian system.

The third group is the Christian Mystic. This is the one that mystical teachings that Pleiadean beings started. You might remember that a lot of the mystery schools were set up by the Pleiadean beings. The typical Christian Love and Light system that is similar to that like the mystical part of the Christianity, the symbolism and the teachings that are kind of behind the scenes, not always taught to the masses but the mystical component of it, that's actually also part of the Rosicrucian System.

The fourth one is Alchemy-Luciferian teachings. This is also part of what I am teaching you as Lucifer is the Bringer of Light being, right? So basically, we kind of forget that it was Lucifer, because of the way it was mistranslated, but human beings turned him into a negative guy. We think of it from the consciousness, right? So, Lucifer was somebody who enlightened them by giving them knowledge so that's a concept. As a conceptual understanding, out of that came Alchemy.

Alchemy is the ability to utilize reality consciously. It is being Masterful of yourself and through that comes your Broadcast, and because of that being able to change this reality to whatever you desire. If it's done in integrity with the higher alignment to the Universal Law, to the Christ Consciousness and so on then it's incredible Mastery and essentially leads to Ascension. This is the pathway I teach you, guys. This is the fourth branch, and those altogether create the four pillars of what the Rosicrucian Order represents.

It's those four components that when put together become the symbol of the Order. The symbol, if you looked on-line and you think of the typical cross with the longer vertical part and the shorter horizontal part and it has a little rose in the center. That's not the actual symbol for the Order. That's more like the human translation – or mistranslation! The actual symbol has nothing to do with the Christianity cross. That Christianity cross is actually a mutation of the equidistant cross that was originally a pre-Christian symbol that is meant to represent harmony and balance of the four components. This Simulation is built on the four components, we have cycles, everything is built on the concept of four here on this planet and it represents the horizontal as in this reality of existence on the material plane, the vertical as in alignment between here and Godhood (the higher perspective). The circle represents the magnetic, the Goddess of the Universe. If you notice, Christianity in the typical sense and how the church completely lost the circle, right? It just became the cross itself.

The symbol of the Rosicrucian order is the circle and it is the cross – so it's an equidistant cross. It's the same height and length. In a center is what looks like a flower but it's actually a vortex of energy. That is meant to be the heart. So, the 'loving heart'. If you think of the female energy as all magnetic surrounding that's the circle, the Goddess, then the center is the birth of the Goddess into the four pathways, the vertical and the horizontal. That's more of the traditional teachings that incorporate that Egyptian-Hermetic tradition, the Kabbalah, the Christian mysticism and the Alchemy-Luciferian pathway. That's what it is meant to be. The Catholic church mutated that. It made the circle completely gone, the rose completely gone, the vertical line became longer – which represents suffering (being stuck here in the material), and the horizontal became smaller as in trying to essentially over-ride your physical existence and suffering in order to get somewhere. That's not the cross we're talking about. The Rosicrucian Cross is the circle with a cross and a rose flower or a vortex in the center.

Obviously, the Rosicrucian society predates Christianity by a lot. We're talking about like 10,000 years or more, so definitely 'a lot'! Think of it like another branch of something that is the same as what the essence of what Christianity was when it still had the feminine energy in there which was supported by the Mary Magdalene tradition and by the Templars, the Cathars that were destroyed, and so on. That is like remnants of the Rosicrucian tradition. What we know of Christianity now? You would have to dig really hard to find the mysticism in there now. Pretty much, the majority is skewed towards the suffering.

The Rosicrucian predates. It's about anchoring the Light on earth so it's the same thing as the message of Christianity, Love and Compassion and understanding of this reality consciously, understanding of Godhood and anchoring that Light on this planet. Rosicrucian people were essentially the whole order. The people who went through that tradition acted as those anchors, kind of the Jesus, like the Buddha, like all the traditions that we're more aware of but there were many that we're less aware of that still did exactly the same thing. Some very obviously and have huge followings, some not so obviously, some really far back in time but they are all part of that system.

Now as I said, it consists of the Earthling Souls who became enlightened through one of those four traditions. They form this 4th Dimensional Council. They guide people in the 3rd Dimension. The Rosicrucian Masters of the 4th Dimension almost never incarnate into the 3rd Dimension because it's too hard and there are too many possibilities of reintroducing karma. It's kind of like for a Starseed to incarnate into 3D. It's hard, it's painful. Our sensitivity is much higher and it makes it difficult handling the density. The Rosicrucian Masters are having the same problem even though they are Earthlings because coming here creates that effect for anybody who has the frequency range that is already expanded.

That does not stop them from acting as guides to the people who are incarnate in 3D and who are not yet beyond the 3D range of the Simulation. Essentially regular humans who are on the Consciousness Path who are becoming the Forerunners of the human Earthling Soul Group in order to wake up the rest of the Soul group. A lot of them have as their energy guides somebody who is actually a Rosicrucian Order person that is in the 4th Dimension and that is on the other side of life. Kind of like how you can have a guide that is say your grandmother or great-great-great grandfather who died and now is on the other side of life and could be your guide.

For Starseeds that is rare. We usually have guides that are non-physical beings from different realms. Most of the time they're actually non-human. It's rare to have a human Soul, an Earthling Soul that is a guide for a Starseed child. For Earthlings that's actually extremely common and it's super rare for them to have a non-human Soul guide. Most Earthlings, Forerunners, have a Soul that is enlightened or is at least on the pathway to Enlightenment from the other side of life that is guiding them.

This is the position that people within the Rosicrucian order who are already ascended or some that are part of the pathway but are not quite ascended yet – they take that position a lot and become guides for human beings who are capable of going to the next step of their development. They act as guides from that place even though they do not incarnate. So, as I said that means there is a 3D and a 4D component of the order. 3D component are the Earthling Souls that are still within the 3rd Dimension. They incarnate and they die and they are still within 3D and they incarnate again and so on but they are Forerunners. They are already ahead and they themselves could serve as the guide for somebody who is also on the same path if they are at that moment on the other side of life (they're not incarnate). Or, if they are incarnate the 4th Dimensional component of the Rosicrucian Council a lot of times serves as guides to them. That's for both components.

There are certain rules for that order, for the consciousness and when the knowledge is imparted upon someone who is in the 3rd Dimension who is able to comprehend it as in hear, see and somehow interact with this person who is from the other side of life and is giving them the data and help themselves go through their own process of spiritual awakening and so on. There are some rules, like they have to do good in the world so it's not a selfish process. It's a process of service. They have to educate on the Laws of Consciousness, on the Laws of the Universe, on Love. They have to educate people on those things and apply those onto themselves so they have to walk their talk.

They also tend to have the Law of being secret which is why sometimes it gets a bad rap. There are so many paranoid people who think that everything that is secret somehow must be bad or that they are tricking somebody or whatever. Actually, sometimes things are secret for a reason. If the Human Group Soul consciousness is not ready to perceive something and they're exposed too early to that knowledge that could actually be detrimental. It's self-responsible of the members of the Order or the Souls incarnate here who are utilizing that awareness to stay secret. It's very rare when they reveal themselves. It's usually only to each other. Or somebody like me would recognize their pattern so I would know when somebody is part of the Order or not because I've been working with them before.

There are others, obviously Starseeds like that. If you have familiarity with that Order, you would probably recognize the Earthling Forerunner that is part of the Order even if they didn't tell you but that's rare. You kind of have to be on the other side of it in order to be able to know. They're not going to come out and say "Oh, let me write a book or go on some TV show and talk about being part of the Rosicrucian Order." That would actually go against the rules of the system that they're a part of.

They also have a rule of having to name their successor. If the Master from the higher frequencies does incarnate here that's part of the system. They have to name somebody before they die. Before they transition out of here and if they are an Ascended Master that means they could do so consciously on purpose when they choose to and without a karmic link. They would have to name whomever is going to now enter the system, like whomever is going to be exposed to the information and knowledge and become a part of the system. That is the same as the Shenu in Egypt. That's where that comes from.

If you read my book “The Secret of Sekhmet” I talk there about the Shenu a lot. The Shenu is sort of the system that, it’s not the same thing as the Rosicrucian Order because it’s actually started by the Starseed Sekhmet. But it is a similar system and people who are Earthling Souls who went through that Egyptian pathway adopted that for the Rosicrucian Order as well. That concept of “Do good; Teach about Universal Laws; Apply Love; Apply all the Laws to yourself and be the example of what it means to be a conscious, aligned Being at all times; serve; stay secret; name your successor”, those are typical Shenu rules that they have adopted.

In Europe they existed more – I think this is like the most recent, well, it’s not the most recent but I’m not going to talk about it, but previous most recent is 1313 in Europe. That’s what essentially caused the Renaissance. That’s when certain people decided to bring it out forward. There was an agreement made or a decision made that that was the time to make some of the knowledge come forward more and then more people became members of the Order. They were very influential and they created that uplift so it was like a timeline component when that could happen. That one was at the beginning of the 1900’s. But that’s pretty recent where this still existed.

Now, right now there are so many societies out there that claim to be Rosicrucian ‘something’. They’re not because well, just by the fact that they’re claiming it they’re really not because that implies that they are utilizing not the Order rules but something that they adopted from them. Part of the rules is actually to stay secret or if they do reveal something it’s very, very minimal. It’s definitely not going to be like a sign on the door “We are the Rosicrucian Order”. It would be more like “We’re doing this specific thing and here is also, by the way, the cross with the rose” and then people who understand would go and see that and go “Oh, I get it.” But that’s not going to be in like the newspapers.

There are so many Orders now. Like, I don’t even know, probably 100 that exist throughout the world that call themselves the Rosicrucian Order. They are not what we’re talking about. They are more of the people who read some of the teachings. Most of this comes from that 1313 Renaissance in Europe and they have kind of created their own branch of the tradition and applied it to create a society out of it. God bless them all. It’s good. They probably are doing a lot of good but I’m just saying that they are not necessarily what we are talking about. What I'm bringing here is a multidimensional thing that has access to a higher frequency.

Alright. So, the Mission of the Rosicrucian Order is to spread knowledge of the Law of One which is one God Source and Love energy. That this is a Simulation. That we live in an environment that's meant to teach us something and then educate about that and the cycles of the Simulation and the Universe in general. What we are going to be doing is we are going to tape in to some of the knowledge of that system which is really knowledge of the four huge traditions and then pull out of there pieces that are needed for you specifically. Not the whole Rosicrucian knowledge because that will probably not be applicable to you, but something that out of those four traditions that amalgamated into what we know as Rosicrucian Order now in the 4th Dimension is something that could wake up something maybe from your other past life or something from your past that maybe became dormant or turned off because of some of your own fear and karmic patterns. In other words, we're going to utilize that vast library that the Rosicrucian Path represents in order to apply to you in a specific way to help you with where you're going in your understanding of Love energy and commitment to Love for yourself. Like any times where you perhaps turned that off, when you decided not to love yourself for whatever reason.

So, we're going to utilize the Rosicrucian library of knowledge for helping you build a commitment to Self-Love.

Be LOVE. Be FREE. Be GOD.
