FURTHER UP, FURTHER IN

1. What is possible for God? How would you answer that question? How would you qualify it? Have you faced (or are you facing) a situation that seemed impossible for God? Explain.

2. Read Daniel 2:1-24. Did anything stand out to you that wasn't covered in Sunday's message? What is your most significant "take-away" from this passage?

3. What do you think about the claims being made regarding the influence of dreams and visions in the salvation of Muslims? Does it fit with your understanding of God's activity in the contemporary world? Why or why not?

4. In what sense is God "present" in your life and through your prayers? Does He always feel nearby, or have you gone through seasons where He feels distant and removed? In what way can we cultivate a sense of intimacy with God?

5. Daniel's faith expressed itself in a dramatic way at the conclusion of our story. Besides your conversion, has God ever placed in you in a situation where a step of radical faith was required? What happened?

"I have come home at last! This is my real country! I belong here. This is the land I have been looking for all my life, though I never knew it till now. . . . Come further up, come further in!" — C.S. Lewis, The Last Battle
