

Have a Magnificat Mother's Day

Mary, a blessed mom, is an example to us all.

- Mary lived in intimate relationship with God
- Mary inscribed God's Word on her heart.
- Mary trusted in the promises of God.

FURTHER UP, FURTHER IN

1. What characteristics does Mary reveal in her response to the Angel's news in Luke 1:26-45? How might you have responded in her sandals?
2. Mary was certainly blessed, and she enjoyed God's grace and favor (Luke 1:28, 30, 42-45). How has history treated Mary? What do you feel is the right attitude toward her?
3. In what ways is Mary an example to moms? To us all?
4. What is there in Mary's relationship with God that encourages you?
5. Why was Mary so quick to believe the call on her life announced by Gabriel? What enabled her to respond in such humble obedience? (Luke 1:38, 45)
6. Why is it important to have our hearts filled with the Word of God? What are some life habits that may have helped Mary inscribe God's Word on her heart? What are some habits we can practice to make His Word more prominent in our hearts and lives?
7. What aspects of the Magnificat (Luke 1:46-55) encourage you most?
