

VISION OF THE ONE WE ASK

EPHESIANS 1:15-23

We need to pray for God's Spirit to open our eyes...

- To the hope of our past calling.
- To the glory of our future inheritance.
- To the greatness of His present power toward us.

The greatness of God's power is seen...

- In raising Jesus from the dead.
- In enthroning Jesus at His right hand.
- In putting all things under Jesus' feet.
- In making Jesus the head over all things for the church.

October 20, 2019

Nathanael King

FURTHER UP, FURTHER IN

1. In Ephesians 1:17-18, what is Paul asking God to do with His Spirit? Why do you think He asks this? How have you seen this work itself out in your life?
2. In Ephesians 1:18-19, what are the three things Paul prays their eyes will be open to (hint: each begins with the word “what”)? Describe what Paul means by each of these things. Which one stands out to you?
3. How might your life change if God gave you greater vision of God’s power towards you?
4. Read Ephesians 1:19-20. How does this description of God’s power make a difference in your life?
5. In the description of the four demonstrations of God’s power in Ephesians 1:19-23, what stood out to you the most? Why?
6. How can focusing on Jesus as the enthroned King of heaven change your perspective this week?

“I have come home at last! This is my real country! I belong here. This is the land I have been looking for all my life, though I never knew it till now. . . . Come further up, come further in!” — C.S. Lewis, The Last Battle