FURTHER UP, FURTHER IN

1. How would you define futility? What is the opposite of futility? Have you ever had a season when you felt like your life was futile? What changed?
2. Looking over Proverbs 3:13-18, how would you define the “blessing” we receive from wisdom? What are some ways that we aim for the wrong thing in our lives instead of aiming for wisdom? (see also Psalm 34:8; 40:4; 84:12; 146:5; 112:1)
3. Read Proverbs 3:19-20. Why does it matter than wisdom is tied to God’s work in creation? How should this impact your thinking on a day-to-day basis?
4. Read Proverbs 3:21-26. What promises are given to those who hold onto wisdom? How have you seen this work itself out in your life? What questions does this raise for you?
5. How does the way people treat each other in our culture produce death and condemnation? How can we be lights in the midst of our culture? (see Phil 2:14-15; 1 Pet 2:11-12; Matt 5:16; 2 Cor 8:21; James 3:13-18)
6. Read Proverbs 3:27-28, 3:29-30, and 3:31-32. As you read, discuss which of these stood out to you and why? Which of these is most challenging to you?
7. What is one relationship where you can exercise one of these verses this week?

“I have come home at last! This is my real country! I belong here. This is the land I have been looking for all my life, though I never knew it till now. . . . Come further up, come further in!” — C.S. Lewis, The Last Battle
