

Teen Intern Program

Application
Deadline:
March 15, 2019

In this year-long program, students entering grades 9 through 12 work with Museum educators to facilitate Family Programs and special projects while exploring art and culture through the Museum's collections. After participating in a training program in spring of 2019, interns will begin volunteering in the fall for a minimum of three Sundays each semester.

Training Sessions

All Teen Interns will attend mandatory training sessions throughout the academic year to familiarize them with the Museum's special and collection exhibitions. Interns will also learn about museum education, working with children, acquiring leadership skills, and engaging with works of art. Applicants must commit to three orientation trainings in the spring of 2019.

Community Service Hours

After completing a year of training sessions and volunteering, Teen Interns will receive community service hours for school.
