Doctor of Philosophy in Clinical Counseling, Teaching and Supervision

The following checklist is a guide for the initial application process.

- Application form

- Application fee ($50.00, non-refundable)

- Official transcript(s) sent directly to the Graduate Counseling program
  Transcripts marked “Issued to Student” are not acceptable.
  1.) An official transcript from a regionally accredited institution in which a master’s degree in counseling, marriage and family therapy, or similar field was completed
  2.) Official transcripts from all institutions in which graduate level coursework was completed
  3.) An official transcript indicating undergraduate degree completed

- Graduate Record Examination (GRE) score report.
  Verbal and quantitative combined score of 300 or higher and analytical writing score of 3.5 or higher are expected for admission. Analytical writing score of 4 is preferred.

- Three (3) completed recommendation forms
  One form must be from a pastor and attest to the Christian character of the applicant. The other two should be from former professors or employers/supervisors who have been in a position to evaluate the applicant’s clinical skills and capacity to complete a doctorate.

- A 400-word letter of intent specifying the applicant’s purpose and goals for entering the Ph.D. program.

- Professional vita, including degrees earned, ministry and/or counseling experience, and career goals.

Return all application items to:

Trevecca Nazarene University
Graduate Counseling Program
333 Murfreesboro Road
Nashville, TN 37210

Application deadline – March 15th

New cohorts begin each fall semester