APPLICANT AGREEMENT STATEMENT

Trevecca Nazarene University is a fully accredited comprehensive institution of higher education located in Nashville, Tennessee. The university offers 50 baccalaureate and four associate degree majors through 10 academic departments, four divisions, and four schools. Master's degrees are awarded in religion, education, physician assistant, management, library and information science, and counseling psychology. While Trevecca affirms its primary goal of educating recent high school graduates, it has also recognized and assumed responsibility for providing innovative undergraduate and graduate programs for adults.

Trevecca's distinctiveness is that of being a holiness institution of higher education which presents a Christian interpretation of truth. While the nature of the university has changed some over the years, its mission to provide quality Christian-centered education, with an emphasis on the integration of faith and learning, has been maintained. The name university is especially appropriate for any institution that is clear and focuses in its mission.

There are several elements that are key to Trevecca's character:

First, teaching is a primary responsibility. While some faculty are increasingly engaged in research, writing, and service projects, their greatest task is to teach.

The second focus is on a strong liberal arts preparation and a viable general education program. Today, most graduate schools and employers are calling for a more general and liberally educated graduate. Trevecca is well-suited for such requests because it has historically included this issue as part of its mission

Third, the main concern is in helping the individual student. Trevecca is Christian community.

Fourth, spiritual life development remains at the core of its focus. Chapel attendance, required religion courses, revivals and the spiritual level of the faculty and student body are a vital part of life on this campus.

We welcome and encourage you to be a part of Trevecca Nazarene University.

MISSION STATEMENT

Trevecca Nazarene University is a Christian community providing education for leadership and service.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Trevecca Nazarene University, founded in 1901 by J. O. McClurkan, is a private, co-educational, four-year accredited liberal arts school that exists to meet the higher educational needs of the Church of the Nazarene. Its academic programs are based on Christian values that promote scholarship, critical thinking, and meaningful worship for students in preparation for lives of leadership and service to the church, the community, and the world at large.

As the official university of the Church of the Nazarene in the southeastern United States, Trevecca is guided by the doctrines and principles for conduct of the denomination. The school emphasizes both the authority of the Bible and doctrine, experience, and ethic of Christian holiness as interpreted by the Wesleyan tradition.

It intends that its graduates be persons of strong Christian character who are able to make ethical decisions based on biblical principles. Their characteristics should include competence, responsibility, compassion, and the ability to integrate Christian faith and learning in practice. The university desires that each student develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

To achieve its purpose, Trevecca employs faculty, administrators, and staff who seek to provide a supportive and challenging environment in which every student can realize his or her full potential in Christ. Therefore, employees must be committed Christians who are professionally qualified and fully committed to the mission/purpose of the school.

The university's curricular programs are focused principally upon undergraduate education in the liberal arts and sciences as reflected in the core curriculum. However, the university provides a wide variety of educational opportunities at both undergraduate and Master's levels, including traditional academic and professional offerings, as well as several non-traditional and continuing educational programs. All university programs seek to prepare individuals for positions of leadership and service in their chosen careers.

The university, as an institution of the Church of the Nazarene, welcomes students of any religious affiliation, age, sex, race, and national or ethnic origin who subscribe to its ideals and standards.

HISTORY

Trevecca Nazarene University was founded in Nashville in 1901 by Rev. J. O. McClurkan as the Literary and Bible Training School for Christian Workers. In 1910 the curriculum was enlarged and the name changed to Trevecca College, a name taken from an institution started in Wales in 1768 during the Wesleyan Revival.

In 1914 the College was moved from downtown Nashville to a site on Gallatin Road in East Nashville and in 1935 was established at its present location on Murfreesboro Road in Southeast Nashville. Trevecca became an official College of the Church of the Nazarene in 1917 and graduated its first four-year class in 1942. It was first accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in 1969. Master's degree programs were added in Education in 1984, in Religion in 1987 and in Organizational Management in 1992.

The University is governed by a Board of Trustees elected by the various districts of the Church of the Nazarene which comprise the Southeast Educational Region.

Agreed Statement of Belief: Church of the Nazarene:

1. In one God - the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
2. That the Old and New Testament scriptures, given by plenary inspiration, contain all truth necessary to faith and Christian living.
3. That man is born with a fallen nature and is, therefore, inclined to evil, and that continually.
4. That the finally impenitent are hopelessly and eternally lost.
5. That the atonement through Christ is for the whole human race; and that whosoever repents and believes on the Lord Jesus Christ is justified and regenerated and saved from the dominion of sin.
6. That believers are to be sanctified wholly, subsequent to regeneration, through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.
7. That the Holy Spirit bears witness to the new birth and also to the entire sanctification of believers.
8. That our Lord will return, the dead will be raised and the final judgment will take place.

I have read and understood the above statements relating to Trevecca Nazarene University. If hired, I agree to abide by these statements. I also understand that Trevecca Nazarene University is an at-will employer.
