Shared heritage. Shared focus. Shared future.

Since 2004, Trevecca has partnered with The Salvation Army to provide superior educational opportunities. Our common Wesleyan tradition, dedication to lifelong learning, and commitment to serving others have fueled our joint mission: to provide an educational experience that enhances the spiritual lives and ministries of those called to serve the kingdom.

Traditional Undergraduate

A regionally accredited, private, liberal arts university, Trevecca develops students who are socially conscious, globally aware, and actively engaged in the educational, social, and spiritual life of the community. Trevecca offers more than 80 areas of study, including some of the highlighted programs below:

- Religion/Religious Studies/Intercultural Studies
- Business
- Worship Arts
- Nursing
- Social Justice
- Music
- Social Work
- Education
- Mathematics and Science
- Communications
- Praise and Worship

These are just a few of our popular programs. A complete list of all of our undergraduate academic programs can be found at www.trevecca.edu.

Scholarships for Traditional Undergraduate Students

Students associated with the Salvation Army may receive one of the following scholarships:

- Scholarship for Officers’ Children
  Up to $6,000 annually
- Salvationists’ Scholarship
