The UrbanGlass Art Quarterly

Thank you for your interest in GLASS: The UrbanGlass Art Quarterly. We are a high-quality print magazine that has been committed to documenting and discussing glass in a fine art context since its first publication in 1979. Our contributors – museum curators, art historians, and nationally known critics – provide our readers with expert guidance in this dynamic field. Subscribe today and join the conversation with the magazine of record for glass art!

Subscribers can receive the magazine at a 30% discount. Marked down from the standard cost of $92, two-year subscriptions can be purchased for just $64. One-year subscriptions can also be purchased for just $36, a 20% discount. Or receive our largest discount by selecting autorenew: just $31 per year.

To mark the 40th anniversary of UrbanGlass, we've unveiled a full redesign for 2017 – a clean, modern look for a new era. And with the same high standards for quality criticism, GLASS Quarterly is your guide to what's happening in glass.
