Jackie Ochitwa started twisting professionally in 2010 in her hometown of Airdrie, Alberta when she picked up a pump and some balloons and realized that her love of art could translate so beautifully with latex as the medium. The former radio host launched her company With a Twist Balloon Creations the same year. Jackie is a full time balloon artist specializing in fun and fresh table decor and delivery pieces. She embraces any opportunity to share her passion with other balloonies. Jackie made her teaching debut in the breathtaking town of Banff, Alberta at Bodysey 2016. She was also honoured to teach at FLOAT the Convention 2017 in St. Louis and will be taking the stage to teach at the World Balloon Convention 2018 in San Diego.
