CAITY BYRNE, CBA,
All About Balloons, Washington, DC

Caity Byrne fell into balloons by chance; after she watched a documentary about clowning, she was hooked! Her entertainment career quickly evolved into a love of balloon decor. After a successful full-time regional career, she launched a national decor delivery service in November of 2016. Her passion for organic decor began when she built a backdrop wall in the White House. She has since had several pieces and walls featured in high profile places with high profile clients.
