Increased Prize Money

The 2015 US Open will increase its prize money by $4 million bringing its total purse to a record $42.3 million, a 10.5% increase over the 2014 US Open. The round-by-round prize money breakdown is available via the Players Only web page (usopen.org/playersonly).

US Open Transformation

Players will see the frame of the roof over Arthur Ashe Stadium has been installed, with the full roof on course to be completed and operational for 2016. Arthur Ashe Stadium will also feature four new videoboards as well as LED court lighting and a new sound system. Please visit the "US Open Transformation" section of the Players Only web page (usopen.org/playersonly) for additional details.

ESPN

2015 will mark the first year of an 11 year agreement with ESPN to serve as the US Open's exclusive domestic broadcast partner, and will offer fans unprecedented coverage across its family of networks.

Players Only Web Page

The Players Only web page (usopen.org/playersonly) includes important player related information such as the Player Handbook, entry lists, alternate practice court options, transportation details and discount offers. In addition, the password protected area includes the official order of play, practice court schedule for courts P1 – P5 and Match Analysis Library. Players will receive their username and PIN upon collection of their credentials from Player Registration.

Player Merchandise Discount

All players receive a 30% discount off all US Open Collection merchandise purchased at select on-site locations during the tournament. Please see the Player Handbook for additional details.

Expanded Services at Julien Farel Salon

The Julien Farel Salon has expanded their complimentary on-site service menu to include 20 minute mini-facials, gel manicures and a braid bar in addition to their existing hair, nail and make-up services.

Official Order of Play/Notification System

The official order of play will ONLY be available via the Players Only web page (usopen.org/playersonly). In addition, players can subscribe to a text or email based notification system that will alert subscribers when the Official Order of Play has been released or changed. Players can subscribe in advance via the Players Only web page (usopen.org/playersonly) or upon arrival at Player Registration.

Match Analysis Library

The Match Analysis Library, available via the password protected area of the Players Only web page (usopen.org/playersonly), allows players to view all televised main draw singles matches since 2012, all televised main draw doubles matches since 2013 and televised main draw singles and doubles matches from 2015 will be added as they are completed. Matches are sorted by year and then by date, and players can watch an entire match or navigate to a specific game, point or category of points for any match in the library, not just their own.

Online Transportation Form

Main Draw participants and past US Open Singles Champions can now request transportation from the airport in New York by using an online form available via the US Open Players Only web page (usopen.org/playersonly) as of Monday, August 24. Airport service is available from LaGuardia, JFK and Newark Liberty airports only, and at least 24 hours prior notice is required.

Coach Interviews

Anyone with a Coach Credential must make himself/herself available for television interviews immediately prior to, during and immediately following his/her player's matches on any of the televised courts (Arthur Ashe Stadium, Louis Armstrong Stadium, Grandstand and Courts 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, 11, 13 and 17).
