Q11 Teams were required to have a certain number of "At-Level" players on their roster in an attempt to improve the quality & consistency of competition. Should the rule be stronger (require more at-level players), more relaxed (require less at-level players), the same (leave rule as is), or completely removed (require no at-level players). (Note: Your response will count ONLY for your personal NTRP level)

Q18 For the past several years, the winning teams have received a banner to hang at their facilities. Another option instead of banners would be trophies that the teams could display at their facilities, but then would have to give over to next year's champions. The team name would be engraved on the trophy. If your team won Districts, would you prefer to receive a banner or trophy?
