

Jack Michalko has been involved in tennis in the Phoenix Valley through many venues for many years.

In 1970, he was named Director of Tennis of the Phoenix Country Club, and remained in that position until his retirement in 2009. He has been the Executive Director for the USPTA Southwest Division since 1990, and is a former two-term president for the organization. He was also named Pro of the Year in 1984, and again in 2004. Jack has served on the USPTA's National Awards Committee, and was presented Tennis Buyer's Guide "America's Best Retailer" award in 1989.

He has lectured at the 1998 and 1999 USPTA World Conferences in California, Florida, Minnesota, and Colorado, and was a speaker at a USTA Tennis Teachers' Conference in Tucson and Phoenix.

He and his wife Rita have been married for 41 years and have two grown children.