The Orange Bowl is an ITF World Junior championships event, and is widely recognized as one of the most important junior tennis championships in the world. Established in 1962, the tournament consists of Boys' and Girls' 12 and 18-year-old age divisions, and takes place during December in varying locations in and around Miami and Coral Gables, Florida. The Orange Bowl special program focuses on preparing that tournament. For that reason we create that competition program, oriented to players who want to maximize their tennis potential working in all technical and tactical aspects of the game though an intensive tennis training and physical training.
