TOC Regional Check List

- Meet with Sport Rec Advisor from your university/college.
- Know the rules of reimbursement, travel and other information the school will need from you. (receipts etc)
- Gather player availability for regional tournaments.
- Create a budget that best fits where you will be traveling and what tennis materials you will need for practice. (tennis balls, food, gas, hotel etc.)
- Rank your teams based on player performance. (A, B, C teams)
- Register for regional tournaments. (most sign up the week before or week of tourn.)
- If you can not attend more then one regional tournament set up dual matches with other TOC clubs near you. (information will be given to all captains for scheduling)
- Delegate small tasks if the work load is too much.
- Make sure you are documenting your community service hours!

TEAM ROOSTER

IDEAS:

- Get involved with your Community Tennis Association
- Seek opportunities with your Varsity team
- You can play tennis anywhere so get creative with who you offer tennis to. (ex. children hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living, after school programs)
- Senior Club, Kids Tennis Club
- Local festivals, parades, university tailgates

Let USTA Texas cover your 2014 USTA Texas League Fee

How to Get Started:

- Participants must be a USTA Texas Section USTA League player currently enrolled at a college or university to be eligible (all current full-time, half-time, as well as graduate students are eligible).
- Players must be registered on a team and have a team number and current USTA membership in order to qualify. Approved Leagues include Adult 18 & Over, Mixed 18 & Over, Tri-Level, Combo and Lone Star.
- Players must complete the REIMBURSEMENT FORM and upload a copy of their most recent student class schedule.
- Once approved, USTA Texas will reimburse you for one (1) USTA Texas League registration fee minus the $3 Active Network (TennisLink) fee to the address you provide. Allow 4 weeks for processing.
- Reimbursement will be distributed on a first come, first serve basis. The final deadline to submit for the 2014 USTA League season is September 30, 2014.

To find a USTA Texas League contact your local league coordinator
