

2006 USTA Southwest Section Hall of Fame Inductee and Award Winners

Samuel Fields of Tucson, Arizona was inducted into the Southwest Section Hall of Fame on Saturday, October 28, 2006 at the 94th Annual Southwest Section Awards Banquet and Silent Auction at the Scottsdale Resort & Athletic Club in Scottsdale, Arizona. Other Southwest award winners were honored for their commitment on and off of the tennis court for this past year. Furthermore, the silent auction was a success raising an amazing amount of over $5,000 to benefit the Southwest Tennis Foundation. Below is a list of the awards presented and the recipients.

Hall of Fame – Samuel Fields, Tucson, Arizona

Adult Player of the Year – Manola Colter, Albuquerque, New Mexico Pictured with Dick Johnson, Northern New Mexico President

Family of the Year – The Stansifer Family, Albuquerque, New Mexico

Junior Female Player of the Year – Courtney Byron, Phoenix, Arizona
Pictured with Paul Burns, Central Arizona President

Junior Male Player of the Year – Andy Nguyen, Phoenix, Arizona
Pictured with Paul Burns, Central Arizona President

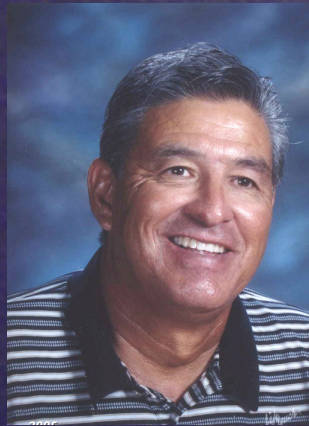

Junior Sportsmanship Award – Kacie Wagner, Phoenix, Arizona
Pictured with Paul Burns, Central Arizona President

Community Tennis Volunteer of the Year – Linda Cobbs, El Paso, Texas
(Not Pictured)

Outstanding High School Coach of the Year – Robert Tapia, El Paso, Texas

Outstanding Tournament Enrichment Award – Jeffrey Brack, Tucson, Arizona
Pictured with Jennifer Fuchs, Southern Arizona President

Southwest Media Award – Christopher Wuensch, Explorer News, Tucson, Arizona

NJTL of the Year – Vamos, Beverly Bourguet, Albuquerque, New Mexico
Pictured with Dick Johnson, Northern New Mexico President

Member Organization of the Year – Tucson Racquet & Fitness Club, Tucson, Arizona
Pictured Bill & Suzy Selby, Matt Gleason and Southwest Section President, Denise Arieu

Courage Award – Dianne Miller, Tucson, Arizona
Pictured with Denise Arieu, Southwest Section President

President's Award – Randy Hopson, Flagstaff, Arizona
Pictured with Jana Perpich, Northern Arizona President

