

1996 Hall of Fame Inductee: Nancy Neeld

Nancy Neeld: Nancy was highly ranked as a junior player in Texas and later became a highly ranked player in the Southwest Section when moving to Albuquerque, NM. She had a remarkable national tennis career, she coached the New Mexico Wightman Cup teams, was awarded the USTA Service Bowl and the Governor's Sports Award for New Mexico. In 1991, Nancy was ranked number 2 in the nation in women's 60 singles and doubles. Throughout her tennis career, Nancy taught many people to play and appreciate the game and has served as a wonderful role model by always maintaining a high level of play and sportsmanship.