

1997 Hall of Fame Inductee: Dr. Lester M. Snyder, Jr.

Dr. Lester M. Snyder, Jr.: Lester has been a countless servant for the USTA for many years. His credentials start off as vice president and umpire for the Phoenix District from 1978-1979, and Southwest Section President, then Section Delegate from 1980-1984. His positions moved up to the national level by serving on numerous committees and eventually making his way up to serve as USTA national treasurer, vice president and finally president from 1995-1996. During his time as president, one of his biggest accomplishments includes overseeing the construction of the Arthur Ashe Stadium.