Late Entries -

- If draws are not full, Tournament Directors can take late entries as long as draws are not POSTED.
- If the draw is full, Tournament Directors may take late entries onto the alternate list, only if the player is not ranked higher than the last seed.
- Tournament Directors may charge up to $25 late entry fee.

Tournament Application Requirements and Helpful Hints

Residency Requirements for Closed Tournaments

Only players who have established a legal residency in Georgia, hold a current USTA membership card assigned to Georgia, and who are citizens of the United States or meet the international player requirements for a national ranking are eligible to participate in Georgia closed tournaments. These residency requirements must be satisfied at least thirty (30) days prior to the entry date of each Tournament.
