

Oakwood Country Club

Oakwood Country Club, Inc. was officially chartered in 1914 in what is now Lynchburg City but was then still part of Campbell County. J.M. Lewis was the architect of the distinctive clubhouse that survives to date in spite of a major fire in the 1920's.

The history that relies more on personal recollections are the fabulous stories of the individuals who provided leadership or were content in simply enjoying their lengthy membership in Oakwood. Generations of families literally grew up at the club. It is an unmistakable fact that the club is regarded as somewhat of a community asset.
