The Tocqueville Society recognizes local philanthropists who are committed to leading the charge for social change through outstanding community service and financial support. Today, there are more than 400 Tocqueville Societies internationally with more than 27,000 members. There are nearly 500 Million Dollar Roundtable members in addition to over 470 families who have endowed their annual Tocqueville support through a planned gift.

Tocqueville Society members’ experiences, abilities, and ambitions effectively help fight for the education, health, and financial stability of every New Yorker in every community—building a City with opportunities for ALL to achieve self-sufficiency.

TOCQUEVILLE MEMBERS MAKE AN IMPACT BY...

- Invest in innovative, social enterprise solutions, that accelerate and produce long-lasting social change
- Learn and inform others about best solutions to address the city’s burning challenges
- Educate and influence the next generation of philanthropic citizens
- Leave a lasting legacy for their families and communities
