

Romans 8:35-37 [E]

[Default Arrangement]

INTRO: Riff on E

E

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?

F#m                      E                      F#m

Shall tribulation, or distress

(F#m)                      E

or persecution, or famine, or nakedness,

F#m                      A    Am

or danger, or sword?

C#m    G#m                      E                      B

As it is written, For your sake we are being killed all the day long;

C#m    G#m                      E                      B

we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered, as sheep to be slaughtered

C#m    G#m    A

sheep to be slaughtered

A    E                      B                      A

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors

(A)    E                      B

through Him who loved us, through Him who loved us (REPEAT)
