W. Test - Link. It is only logical that those classes that remain online will continue to be supported by the faculty. Until these shifts, we are meeting the varied needs of our students by offering a variety of delivery mechanisms. To facilitate these choices, we have posted teaching materials and practice materials online. San Diego State University is a leading national university dedicated to a diverse, international student body. Our campus is located in the heart of downtown San Diego near museums, sports and entertainment venues, and excellent public transportation. This site is designed to help you access resources to assist you in your academic pursuits at SDSU. Some of the services offered through this site are provided by third parties. Through this site you may request information, access to shared learning objects, and arrange a personal appointment with a faculty member or supervisor. You may also access services related to your financial aid and personal health. In addition, through a virtual library of library resources, find study skills, resume building tools, and reference materials to help you succeed. To best serve you and your needs, you will need to create a My SDSU account. Your SDSU Online ID is your username. Some services, such as your Online ID, may not be reset or replaced. You will be prompted to select a password when you create your SDSU online ID. As part of your SDSU Online ID you will be able to access SDSU student email. When creating your SDSU online ID, you must provide a valid email address. The mail service will be temporarily unavailable while you are using the campus mail client. You will receive this email when the mail service resumes. You will not be charged for this period of service outages. If you are already enrolled at SDSU, please contact SDSU DirectConnect customer service at: 1-877-715-2288. If you are not currently enrolled at SDSU, please contact SDSU DirectConnect customer service to begin your enrollment process. If you experience technical difficulties or if you would like to try another service to assist you, you may contact the local Campus Computing Center or the Help Desk: Campus Computing Center: (
