DELICIOUS.

Zagat named Pittsburgh the “Number One Food City” in the U.S., with options like our infamous Primanti Sandwich, high-end cuisine, low-down street food and locally grown delicacies; your group will enjoy tasting it all! Indulge further with local craft beer, wine, gin, rum and whiskey.

HISTORIC.

Learners of all ages will delight in Pittsburgh’s journey from “Steelmaking Capital of the World” to “Silicon Valley of the East.” From Andrew Carnegie to Andy Warhol, and from the Cathedral of Learning to the Heinz History Center, significant historical happenings define Pittsburgh.

LEGENDARY.

Six Super Bowl championships, five World Series titles and five Stanley Cups make Pittsburgh the “City of Champions.” Take in game at our state-of-the-art arena and stadiums.

AFFORDABLE.

Shoppers revel in the big savings from tax-free clothing, bargains at malls, outlets and eclectic boutiques. Pittsburgh also has plenty of trendy and family-friendly hotels and restaurants to suit every budget.

ENTERTAINING.

Experience a show in our vibrant Cultural District. Attend one of our festivals. Explore our numerous museums or simply enjoy the view from Mt. Washington as the city transforms into a sparkling metropolis as the sun sets.
