As authentic as it is awesome, the strength of Pittsburgh lies in the friendliness of its people and the beauty of its landscape. Add award-winning chefs, eclectic art galleries, one-of-a-kind venues and world-class attractions all conveniently located within walking distance of the David L. Lawrence Convention Center, and you’ll find that Pittsburgh makes for one of the most ideal meeting destinations in the country.

From its contemporary architectural build, the David L. Lawrence Convention Center was the first Platinum LEED-certified convention center in the United States. On the cutting edge of design, this innovative structure connects the urban city to the waterfront overlooking the Allegheny River. A cascading waterfall and walkway lead to 24 miles of riverfront trails and access to river cruises aboard the Gateway Clipper. The architecturally stunning building symbolizes this region’s commitment to sustainable development and environmental awareness.

A safe, walkable Downtown, through the Cultural District, allows delegates plenty of free-time options. Pittsburgh is packed with possibilities and boasts 200+ restaurants within easy walking distance of the convention center and Downtown accommodations. Nightlife features walkable hot spots in Market Square, as well as the North Shore, just a short walk across one of the three sister bridges.

Pittsburgh’s rolling hills, shimmering rivers and stunning skyline will delight meeting planners and attendees alike.
