Dear MCA Family,

Summer is coming upon us quickly, and we are ready. The months between school years represent a terrific opportunity for our students to have a lot of fun, learn new things, take on new challenges, and make new friends. This summer we are pleased to be able to offer a diverse array of different camps across athletics, engineering, math, science, the arts, and even a culinary camp!

These camps are great for students who are looking to explore a new area of possible interest, for those looking to build athletic conditioning prior to the next sports season, or for someone just looking for a creative outlet—there’s something for everyone. There are even some athletic opportunities in which you, the parent, can participate right along with your student!

Brief descriptions, along with key dates, costs, and details, follow. If you have any questions, contact me for details if there is not a specific contact person listed for the particular camp you are exploring.

Most camp registration fees include a 2016 MCA Camp t-shirt. Once you have selected your camp(s) of interest, you can register your student online at mcamustangs.org.

For an extensive list of summer programs available across the country that may be of interest to you and your students, I encourage you to visit teenink.com. Be sure to take advantage of what you can.

We look forward to working with you this summer to help your students have a lot of fun, learn, and continue to prepare themselves for futures beyond MCA.

Enjoy a blessed summer,

John Szwaja

YOUNG WRITERS WORKSHOP

The Minneapolis Young Writers Workshop connects motivated writers ages 13–19 with bestselling authors who are gifted writers and teachers. Focused tracks allow you to learn from an author who writes in your genre. Writers include Jay Asher, Ally Condie, Jennifer Nielsen, Jonathan Friesen, and more. Not only will you have the opportunity to learn from successful authors, you’ll have the chance to receive feedback on your work. We believe that young adults have important stories to tell—so important that we’ll place selected manuscripts on the desks of editors from major publishing houses. Does your story sparkle? Imagine an acquisitions editor from HarperCollins reading your chapters. That’s how book contracts are born. Keynote evening speakers will be open to the general public at no cost. Register on the "Evening Keynote" page to ensure your spot is held for the event.

Grades: 7–12

CREO SUMMER DANCE BLITZ

Each day begins with a prayer and a faith based ballet class. Your dancer will not only learn the traditions of ballet, but will also learn to use their dance as a way to worship. Our ballet curriculum provides dancers with exceptional technique, expression, and tools for creativity. We will use both classical music and Contemporary Christian music.

Next dancers will enjoy a jazz/hip-hop class. This class will get dancers groovin’ with fun, fresh, key steps such as to-prock, basic breakdancing, freezes, six-step, popping, and locking. Hip-Hop dance is athletic, exciting, and stresses individuality and self-expression. CREO teachers use age appropriate, wholesome hip-hop music, both old-school and contemporary.
