

Kyle Raulin Memorial Scholarship

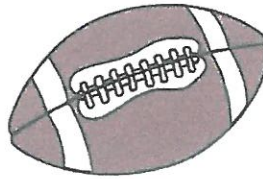

Dear Student,

The Kyle Raulin Memorial Scholarship has been established for Senior Male Athletes. Kyle was a 2001 graduate of Lakota West High School. He served as a captain in both soccer and basketball during his senior year. Kyle died in an April 2003 arson fire at Ohio State University. Due to the generosity of many people, the Kyle Raulin Scholarship awards $1,250 to a Lakota West Senior Male Athlete.

Kyle's love of sports, unselfish play, good sportsmanship and willingness to help underclassmen are at the heart of this award.

The criteria for this scholarship include:

must be Senior Male Athlete*

must have participated in interscholastic athletics at least during senior year*

must have assisted/influenced underclass teammates in positive ways*

must have demonstrated unselfish play, excellent sportsmanship & enjoyment of the sport*

must have exhibited academic achievement with a minimum 3.0 accumulative GPA*

must use scholarship monies for college education*

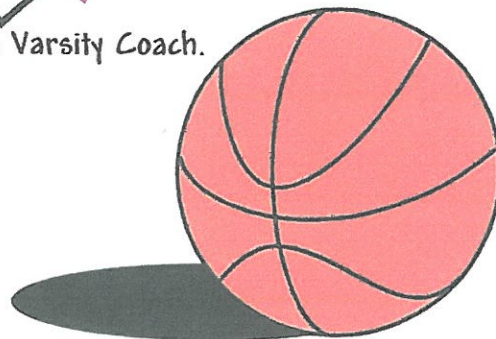

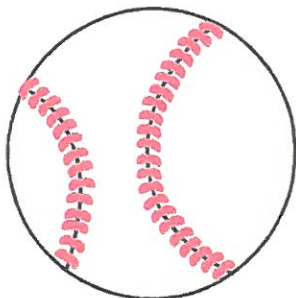

This award is presented at Senior Awards night in May, and a check will be sent to the college of choice. Once the scholarship has been accepted, an acknowledgement of this scholarship should be sent to :
