

Jason T. Reed, MS, ATC, SCAT

A native of Tipton, Pennsylvania, Jason went to undergrad at St. Francis College of PA. He graduated in 1999 from SFC with a BS in Psychology. Jason was among the last to be certified as an athletic trainer via the Internship Route. After certification, Jason began working full time for Saint Francis as the Head Football and Men's Volleyball Athletic Trainer. He then attended High Point University and earned a MS in Sports Studies in 2005. Jason spent the next two years in Buffalo, NY at Canisius College. From there he moved to South Carolina and became the Associate Head Athletic Trainer at Presbyterian College, where he remained for 7 years. In 2014, Jason took a teaching/athletic training position with Greenwood District 50. He taught Sports Medicine and Medical Terminology at the G. Frank Russell Technology Center and was the Head Athletic Trainer for Greenwood High for two years. Jason joined PlaySafe as a full time Athletic Trainer in 2016 assigned to Greenwood High School. He resides in Greenwood with his wife, Shelby Dominick Reed, and three children, Summers Hall, Jefferson "Duke", & Thayer Reed.