Current employment – Supervisor – Stout Enterprises Construction

Fondest memory of high school athletics – Running the Fences under the Guidance of Coach Ryan. Defeating West Side to start our 10-0 season. Jumbling our names on our Warm ups prior to a Basketball game played at St. Joe. Switching from the 180 yard low hurdles to the 330 yard low hurdles(Not a Fond Memory). Friendships and team building.

Life lesson learned from athletics – Athletics are far more than winning and losing. You build character. You learn responsibility. You learn to work with others, as one, to achieve goals. You gain confidence and realize what it is to commit to something and see that commitment to the end.
