I am flattered to be named one of NACVA's Outstanding the past few years, I have been a member of NACVA since 1997. For the past few years, I have been Vice President of the New Jersey State NACVA Chapter and actively involved in the planning of our annual conferences where we bring in both local and national speakers. On a national level, I have been co-chair and a member of planning committees for many of NACVA's annual conferences and a member and past Chairperson of the NACVA Litigation Forensics Board.

The majority of my work is in the matrimonial arena. As such, I am proud to be an instructor and course developer for the NACVA Matrimonial Litigation Support Workshop and course developer of the Advanced Matrimonial Workshop introduced in 2011. Locally, I am an officer in the South Jersey Collaborative Law Group.

I am honored to be on the Panel of Experts of the Financial Litigation and Valuation Expert publication, a contributing author the Business Valuation Resources Healthcare Industry Valuation Guide, and the Family LawServices Handbook.

In addition to working in the fields of business valuation, forensic accounting, economic damages, and litigation support, I provide accounting and tax services for closely-held and family businesses including financial statement preparation, and business and personal income tax planning and compliance.

I am doing what I am doing today thanks to the guidance of my t-ball coach John Cerro who told me that based on my love of math I could be an actuary or an accountant. We all know that accountants have more fun than actuaries.

My free time is spent with husband Craig, my two beautiful daughters (age 10 and 8) and our dog Bouncer who was "practice" before having kids.

Again, thank you for this honor.
