ABOUT US

Hope for the Inner City is the dynamic merger of Inner City Ministries and Hope for Chattanooga, two local faith-based ministries with a combined 49-year history of helping the poor in the name of Jesus Christ.

Working with New City Fellowship, a cross-cultural urban congregation, as well as other churches and agencies, we seek true change in the lives of individuals and of whole communities by applying the gospel of Jesus Christ to real-life situations. We help by:

- Meeting people's emergency needs (mercy ministry).
- Moving people from dependency to self-sufficiency (Christian community development).
