

MUNISH LOOMBA, MB, BS

Dr. Loomba completed a pain fellowship at the University of Pittsburgh in 2004 and practiced pain management at the Ozarks Medical Center In Missouri for 2½ years prior to joining Regions Hospital and HealthPartners Interventional Pain Management Program in October 2008.

He has established an Interventional Pain Management Program at Westfields Hospital Specialty Clinic and supports primary care physicians through consultation with patients as needed.

SERVICES

Conditions and diseases treated include:

- Spine pain, back and neck
- Extremity pain
- Headaches and migraines
- Fibromyalgia
- Cancer pain
- Chronic pain

EDUCATION

Medical School

Mahatma Gandhi Medical College, Indore, India, 1993

Internship

Louisiana State University Medical Center, Shreveport, LA, 1999

Residency in Clinical Anesthesia

Louisiana State University Medical Center, Shreveport, LA, 2001
MCP Hahnemann University Hospital, Philadelphia, PA, 2002

Fellowship in Pain Medicine

University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA, 2004

Observerships in Pain Medicine

Cleveland Clinic, Cleveland, OH, 2004
UPMC, Pittsburgh, PA, 2004

Board Certifications

Anesthesiology
Pain

MUNISH LOOMBA, M.B., B.S.
Interventional Pain Management

SCHEDULE

2nd and 4th
Wednesdays

APPOINTMENTS

Call (715) 243-2900
to schedule
appointments.

westfieldshospital.com