Westfields Hospital's first baby of 2013

January 2, 2013— Westfields Hospital celebrates the birth of the first baby at the hospital in the New Year. He is Carson Cody, the third child for mother Stefanie Cody, and father Tim Cody. Carson officially entered the world on Wednesday, Jan. 2, a mere two days into the New Year.

Carson weighed in at 10 pounds 6 ounces, heavier than Stefanie's other children at birth by a full two pounds. His due date was January 1st so his parents had high hopes he would be the first in 2013. Carson's brother Robert, 6, and Angelena, 8, were excited to welcome him into the family.

The Cody's received a gift card from the Birth Center, and a hand crafted quilt from the Willow River Piecemakers Quilt Guild in celebration of the Carson's "first baby of 2013" status.
