

Wood Lane CommUNITY Honors

AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Deadline: Return to Rachel Smith – rsmith@woodlane.us - by February 26, 2018

Award Categories:

- Outstanding Self-Advocate: To recognize an individual receiving services who has demonstrated self-advocacy skills.
- Individual Achievement: To recognize an individual receiving services for his or her personal achievement.
- Community Leader: To recognize an individual whose vision and actions have had a significant impact on Wood Lane.
- The Cammi Chamberlain Distinguished Service: To recognize exemplary service by a Wood Lane employee.
- Volunteer Achievement: To recognize exemplary contributions to Wood Lane by a volunteer.
- Wood Lane Spirit Award: To recognize a person or family associated with Wood Lane who has demonstrated Wood Lane's positive and person-centered culture.

Mission

The Mission of the Wood County Board of Developmental Disabilities is to support, empower and inspire people.

Vision

All people are respected members of the community.

Values

Partnership – Advocacy – Integrity - Respect

