Gillette STADIUM

www.GilletteStadium.com @GilletteStadium

Gillette Stadium, home of the New England Patriots, is the region's premier sports and entertainment venue. Since opening in 2002, every Patriots home game has sold out and fans have enjoyed more regular season and postseason victories than any other team in the NFL.

In 16 seasons, the venue has hosted more than 10 million football fans attending Patriots games and has been the site of seven AFC Championship games – six of them being Patriots victories. During that span, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home with an overall record of 125-24, including an 18-3 playoff record in Foxborough.

The Kraft family continues to invest in Gillette Stadium with improvements designed to keep the venue on the cutting edge and enhance the fan experience. Notable infrastructure updates for this season include converting the stadium lights to LED and a complete renovation of the Patriots locker room from its original design with new lockers, flooring, walls, ceilings and lighting. Notable improvements to fan amenities include renovations to the east and west Putnam clubs with new outdoor seats, bathrooms, flooring and lighting, the addition of food and drink rails in the north and south end zones on the main concourse and the southeast corner of the upper concourse, the addition of more enclosures throughout the upper concourse to protect fans from the region's elements and the addition of more TVs throughout the upper concourse.

NOTABLE GILLETTE STADIUM IMPROVEMENTS:

2010: Installed two Daktronics high-definition LED video scoreboards.

2011: Remodeled of the Putnam Club to offer 120,000 square feet of comfort.

2012: Became one of the largest NFL venues to offer free WiFi with enough bandwidth to accommodate every fan. Rebranded all concessions to offer a greater and healthier mix of menu options.

2013: Installed more than 14,000 square feet of LED ribbon boards and four digital panels on the sidelines above the concourse Launched Patriots Gameday Live App to give fans more ways to enjoy game day with exclusive in-game content.

2014: Installed of LED signage throughout the stadium. Upgraded the field surface. Expanded the football operations facility by 30,000 square feet.

2015: Constructed the Optum Field Lounge, Cross Insurance Pavilion & Business Center, DraftKings Fantasy Sports Zone and two super suites and the pedestrian bridge in the north end of the stadium. Installed additional LED ribbon boards.

2016: Remodeled the suites. Expanded administrative offices. Upgraded the venue's WiFi. Introduced new concessions featuring locally sourced beef, poultry and produce from farms around New England.

Gillette Stadium is also the home of Major League Soccer's New England Revolution and annually hosts a diverse lineup of sports and entertainment events, including international soccer matches, NCAA athletics, motor sports and high school football state championships. In 2016, the stadium hosted the NHL Winter Classic. The venue is also one of the world's top grossing concert venues, according to Billboard magazine, and has hosted many of the biggest acts in music, including Taylor Swift, Kenny Chesney, the Rolling Stones, Bruce Springsteen, Billy Joel and Elton John, One Direction and Beyoncé, just to name a few.

Gillette Stadium's design celebrates New England's heritage with a stylized lighthouse and bridge that greets fans entering from NRG Plaza and creates the stadium's signature view.

2017: Constructed Union Point and the JetBlue Landings on the upper concourse and a 10-inch food and drink rail encircling the entire 300-level.

GILLETTE STADIUM FUN FACTS

The Height of Design
The stadium's signature lighthouse in the north end zone rises 10 stories above the playing field, but is dwarfed by the height of the stadium itself, which is 16 stories tall.

Worth the Weight
Approximately 6,300 pieces of blue steel form the structure of Gillette Stadium, weighing in at 16,000 tons.

Lap of Luxury
The Putnam Clubs on each side of Gillette Stadium are larger than a football field, with cathedral ceilings four stories high and a floor-to-ceiling glass wall providing an end zone to end zone view of the field.

The Suite Life
The stadium's 88 luxury suites each have granite-topped wet bars, marbled bathrooms and personal attendants.

Making Room
The construction of Gillette Stadium required the removal of 90,000 cubic yards of blasted bedrock, 310,000 cubic yards of total excavated material and the demolition of the old Foxboro Stadium and racetrack. All materials were repurposed into the construction of Gillette Stadium.

Concrete Example
The foundation of Gillette Stadium consists of 17,500 cubic yards of concrete, enough to build a sidewalk from here to Boston, on both sides of the street.

A Light Snack
On a typical game day, Patriots fans eat more than one ton of Italian sausage and warm up with 186 gallons of clam chowder.

Teamwork
Up to 5,000 staff are necessary to operate Gillette Stadium for a Patriots game, at a ratio of one worker for every 13.7 fans.

"One of the greatest things about sports is the bond players and fans share. You feel like you've lived through the same experiences and share the same memories. That was one of our motivations in building The Hall. We wanted to create a place where our fans and alumni could visit and relive those moments together. We wanted to preserve the legacy of this franchise and give our greatest players the most prominent display of any hall of fame in the world."

– Robert Kraft

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by Raytheon offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to bring the Patriots story to life. It's incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery has undergone renovations over the last three years and houses all five Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those championships. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attractions for Patriots and football fans alike.

The experience begins as visitors enter an elevator on the ground floor and hear a voice from Patriots history welcoming them to The Hall of Fame. The journey continues through 20,000 square feet and two stories until visitors reach one of The Hall of Fame's signature exhibits and its premier photo opportunity: the Patriots' five Lombardi trophies.

The Hall of Fame features interactive exhibits designed to educate and entertain. Visitors receive instruction from Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick on how plays in the Patriots' playbook are designed. They also step inside a game-used replay booth and make the call on an instant replay review with instruction from former NFL Vice President of Officiating Mike Pereira. Additionally, fans can make Malcolm Butler's famous championship-clinching interception in The Hall of Fame's incredible Super Bowl Experience exhibit.

The Hall of Fame's 25 high-definition touch screen kiosks allow visitors to interact with the exhibits in unique ways. Exclusive video content is also displayed on 34 high-definition TV monitors, 12 projection screens and the 45-foot-wide panoramic movie screen in the Raytheon Theater, where a 17-minute signature film plays every 20 minutes.

Each of the members of the Patriots Hall of Fame is immortalized on 30-foot high, five-foot wide video pylons utilizing high-resolution LED displays. Fans can choose which Hall of Famer to highlight on one of four touch screen kiosks, causing the pylons to come alive with video and images of each player while additional information is displayed on the screen below.

To complement the audiovisual experiences, there are thousands of football artifacts on display at The Hall of Fame, ranging from the priceless (a football from the 1876 Harvard-Yale game) to the quirky (the infamous snow plow that cleared the way for a Patriots win over the Dolphins in 1982) to the sublime (The Patriots' five Super Bowl rings).

In partnership with the Raytheon Company, The Patriots Hall of Fame presents an integrated math and science education program featuring STEM modules that engage field trip students in real-life, football-related experiences using the engineering design process and other standards-based activities. The Hall of Fame added a new educational interactive in 2013 in conjunction with Raytheon -- a passing and kicking game called, "By the Numbers," in which participants input information to complete a pass or kick a field goal. Additionally, all visitors can experience the "In the Numbers" exhibit, presented by Raytheon, which uses football to teach math and science in a fun and interactive way.

In 2015, Yankee magazine named The Patriots Hall of Fame "Best Sports Museum". In 2009, The Hall of Fame received a Gold MUSE Award from the American Association of Museums and The Hall's signature film, "Patriots Way," won a CINE Golden Eagle Award. The Hall of Fame was also named to Boston Globe Magazine's Best of the New and was a Yankee magazine Editor's Choice recommendation. For more information, please visit www.thehallatpatriotplace.com.

ROBERT KRAFT

CHAIRMAN & CEO

Robert Kraft is the founder, chairman and CEO of the Kraft Group, based in Foxborough, Mass. The Kraft Group is the holding company of the Kraft family's many businesses, including the New England Patriots, New England Revolution, Boston Uprising, Gillette Stadium, International Forest Products, Rand-Whitney Group, Rand-Whitney Containerboard and a portfolio of more than 100 private equity investments.

A lifelong football fan and 23-year New England Patriots season ticket holder before buying the team, Kraft became the chairman and CEO of the Patriots when he took ownership on Jan. 21, 1994, and pledged, "My objective in buying the Patriots is to help bring a championship to New England." That seemed to be a tall order considering the team's prior success rate. In the five year's prior to Kraft's ownership, the team had won just 19 of 80 games (a .238 winning percentage) with no playoff appearances. In fact, in the 34-year history of the franchise (1960-93) the Patriots had won just 229 games (including playoffs), averaging fewer than seven wins (6.6 avg.) per season.

The year Kraft bought the team (1994), the Patriots qualified for the playoffs for the first time in eight seasons. They also clinched a playoff berth four times in his first five seasons as owner. In the past 25 seasons (1994-2018), the Patriots won 311 games (including playoffs) for an average of just over 12 (12.4 avg.)

wins per season. The Patriots entered the 2018 season with 115 wins (regular season and postseason) in this decade and needed 11 wins overall in 2018, which they accomplished with an 11-5 record, to tie the Patriots of 2000-09 for the most wins in a decade in NFL history with 126. Additionally, if New England earns 3 regular-season victories next season, the franchise will surpass the Indianapolis Colts record of 115 regular-season wins in a decade (2000-09).

Playoff games offer another stark contrast. Prior to 1994, Patriots fans had only been treated to one home playoff game, which the Patriots lost to the Houston Oilers in 1978. Since 1994, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 20 times — 18 as division champions — and hosted 26 home playoff games, in which they have gone 23-3 (.885).

The worst-to-first ascent of the New England Patriots since Kraft purchased the team may be the greatest in sports history. Under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have incurred the fewest losing seasons (2) in the NFL since 1994, recorded at least nine wins

Kraft and the Patriots organization have built a winning team in the community. Established in 1994, the New England Patriots Foundation was created to support charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout New England.

A WINNING TRADITION

Robert Kraft's winning percentage with the Patriots (.696) since taking over the team in 1994 is the highest among all owners/ownership groups with at least 200 wins (regular and postseason). He is one of just five owners with at least 200 wins and a winning percentage over .600.

Robert Kraft	Patriots	1994-present	.696

in 22 of 25 seasons and won more division titles (18) and conference crowns (10) than any other NFL team. In 2016, the Patriots claimed their fifth Super Bowl championship during Kraft's tenure, a total that is most in the league since 1994.

INSTALLING HIS VISION

It didn't take long for Kraft's vision to come into focus. His personal investment in the team restored the faith of Patriots fans and rejuvenated interest throughout New England. The year he bought the team, season ticket sales soared to new heights, eclipsing 40,000 for the first time in franchise history. By the start of his first season, every game was sold out, a feat that had never been accomplished in the franchise's previous 34 seasons. That achievement ensured that local broadcast blackouts would be lifted and every Patriots game, home and away, would be televised throughout New England for the first time in team history. Since then, every game has been sold out. By the end of the 2018 regular season, that streak extended to 273 games.

ASCENSION

The transformation of the Patriots under Kraft's leadership constitutes one of the greatest franchise revivals in sports history. After winning back-to-back Super Bowls and three titles in four years, Forbes magazine named the Patriots "The Best Team in Sports" in 2005.

In 2007, the New England Patriots won a then franchise-record fifth consecutive division title. They also became the first NFL team to win 16 games during the regular season and the only team to ever win 18 consecutive games in one season. The undefeated regular season boosted the team's regular season record from 2003 to 2007 to 66-14 for a remarkable .825 winning percentage. The 66 regular-season wins in that span are the most by any team over any five-year stretch in NFL history. Additionally, from Oct. 5, 2003, to Nov. 8, 2008, the Patriots won 81 games with only 19 losses, matching the most successful 100-game stretch since the league was founded in 1920.

The Kraft-era Patriots also set three significant NFL records for consecutive wins. From 2003-04, the Patriots won 21 consecutive games, including playoffs. From 2006-08, the Patriots won 21 consecutive regular-season games. Additionally, the Patriots established an NFL record by winning 10 consecutive playoff games (2001-05). During that time, the Patriots also won 21 consecutive games at Gillette Stadium, the longest home win streak in franchise history.

The success the Patriots sustained during the first decade of the new millennium is unrivaled. The Patriots' 126 total victories (including playoffs) were the most by any team in one decade in the 98-year history of the NFL. The decade of dominance featured more Super Bowl titles (3), conference titles (4), division titles (7), playoff wins (14), victories in a single season (18) and victories in a regular season (16) than any other team. In addition, no other NFL team hosted more playoff games (9) or played in more playoff games (18) than the New England Patriots. The sustained success earned the franchise "Team of the Decade" acclaim

BEST IN SPORTS

After claiming their third Super Bowl in four years, Forbes selected the New England Patriots as the best team in sports. The accompanying article recognized how Robert Kraft built the Patriots organization into a winner on and off the field.

Prior to 1994, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs just six times during their first 34 seasons (1960-93). In the 25 seasons since Robert Kraft has taken ownership, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 20 times, 18 times as division champions, and have won ten conference titles and five Super Bowl championships.

250 WINS

Robert Kraft reached 250 career wins on Dec. 21, 2014, in the Patriots 17-16 win at the N.Y. Jets. He reached 250 career wins in 368 career games, tied with Chicago's George Halas for the fastest to reach 250 wins. Kraft enters the 2018 season with 298 career wins (including playoffs).

GETTING HIS START

Kraft began his business career with the Rand-Whitney Group, Inc., of Worcester, Mass., a company that converts paper into packaging for various industries. He later acquired the company. In 1972, he founded International Forest Products, a trader of paper commodities that now does business annually in more than 90 countries. Together, Rand-Whitney and International Forest Products (IFP) comprise one of the largest privately-owned and fully integrated paper and packaging companies in the United States. In 2017, IFP was the top U.S. containerized exporter in New England and ranked fifth in North America.

Kraft founded the Kraft Group to serve as the holding company for the Kraft family's diverse business interests comprised of companies in sports and entertainment, the paper and packaging industry, real estate and private equity investing.

Throughout Kraft's professional career, many of his biggest risks have yielded the greatest rewards. That was true throughout his pursuit of Patriots ownership, beginning in 1985 when he first purchased an option on the land surrounding the old stadium in Foxborough, Mass. It was a large investment for an underdeveloped parcel of land, but proved to be an important first step in a long process toward buying the Patriots. In 1988, he took another step by purchasing the stadium out of bankruptcy court. With a binding lease through 2001, the acquisition of the old stadium proved to be an invaluable asset in Kraft's quest toward owning the team.

When the Patriots moved to then Schaefer Stadium in 1971, Kraft invested in season tickets for his family. He credits the memories and experiences shared with his family and other Patriots fans during those years for his passionate pursuit of ownership of the franchise. When his opportunity came to buy the team in January of 1994, Kraft faced a difficult business dilemma. He had to decide between committing over $172 million of family resources to purchase the Patriots or accept a lucrative $75 million buyout offer to void the final years of the team's stadium lease and allow the team to move out of New England. On Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft passed on the buyout offer, choosing instead to make an 11th-hour bid to buy the team. On Feb. 26, 1994, a day after Kraft earned league approval, season tickets for the 1994 season went on sale and Patriots fans showed their support for Kraft's decision in record numbers. By the end of the first business day, amidst a winter Nor'easter, 5,958 season ticket orders were processed, shattering the previous single-day sales record of 979. The show of support validated Kraft's decision to buy the team and gave him the confidence to focus on another long-term project with great financial risk: the private-financing and construction of Gillette Stadium.

In his first year of ownership, the Patriots won their final seven regular-season games to qualify for the postseason, ending an eight-year playoff drought. By his fifth anniversary as owner, under the direction of two different head coaches, the Patriots had already established themselves as perennial playoff contenders, qualifying for the postseason four times, including twice as division champions. In 1996, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years. After defeating Pittsburgh in the playoffs that year, the Patriots hosted their first conference championship game in franchise history and defeated Jacksonville, 20-6, to advance to Super Bowl XXXI.

2018 NFL OWNER COMMITTEES

While Kraft gets credit for resurrecting the once wayward Patriots franchise, he's also often cited as a key contributor in many of the league's major contract negotiations. He is the chairman of the NFL's broadcast committee and an active member of four other committees.

- ★ Broadcast Committee - Chairman
- ★ Management Council Executive Committee
- ★ NFL Network Committee
- ★ Finance Committee
- ★ Compensation Committee

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

The Patriots won more than half of their games for the 18th straight year in 2018. They are the first team to win more than half of their games in 18 straight seasons since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

BUILDING GILLETTE

From 2000 to 2002, the Kraft Group's construction and real estate development team oversaw the on-time and on-budget construction of Gillette Stadium, a privately-financed facility and the only one of its kind to be financed without the burden of personal seat license fees charged to season ticket members. The financial commitment from Kraft provided a solid foundation on which to build for the first time in the franchise's nomadic history. Moving from Foxboro Stadium into the majestic Gillette Stadium marked another worst-to-first transformation for the Krafts, who now operate New England's premier entertainment venue. After opening Gillette Stadium, Kraft was recognized as the Sports Executive of the Year by one national publication and he and Jonathan Kraft were named Sports Industrialists of the Year by another.

The construction of Gillette Stadium was the first project of the Kraft Group's development team. In 2007, the Kraft Group expanded the development of the site with the construction of Patriot Place, a mixed-use lifestyle center and entertainment destination.

LOVE OF SPORTS

Kraft is widely recognized as one of the most successful owners in professional sports. His long-standing support of soccer in the United States dates back to his efforts in the early 1990s to secure Foxborough as one of the nine host venues for the 1994 FIFA World Cup and become one of three founders of Major League Soccer when he founded the New England Revolution in 1995. In 2017, Kraft was named Honorary Chairman of the Board of the United Bid Committee of Canada, Mexico and the United States and helped secure the 2026 FIFA World Cup for North America.

As Chairman and CEO of the New England Patriots, Investor/Operator of the New England Revolution and owner of Gillette Stadium and Patriot Place, Kraft has turned the underdeveloped parcel of land he purchased in 1985 in Foxborough, Mass., into a world-class sports and entertainment destination in New England.

In 2017, The Kraft Group unveiled its newest sports property, the Boston Uprising, an esports

Under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots and the Revolution have delivered five league championships and 13 conference titles, as well as a U.S. Open Cup and a SuperLiga title, while his private-financing of Gillette Stadium has given fans a world-class facility in which to enjoy New England's championship tradition.

PERSONAL

A native of Brookline, Mass., Kraft attended local public schools before entering Columbia University on an academic scholarship. Upon graduation, he received a fellowship to attend Harvard Business School, where he earned a master's degree in business administration.

Kraft's love for football and the Patriots began decades ago. A Patriots fan since their AFL days in the 1960s, Kraft attended games at each of the team's Boston venues: Boston University Field, Fenway Park, Boston College Alumni Stadium and Harvard Stadium.

In addition to serving on several NFL owner committees, Kraft also serves on the board of directors for Apollo Global Management and the Apollo Theater as well as the board of trustees for Carnegie Hall. He is a distinguished trustee for the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, where he established the Kraft Family Blood Donor Center. He is a member of the executive committee of the Massachusetts Competitive Partnership. Kraft is a trustee emeritus at Columbia, a trustee of Boston College and has received honorary degrees from several colleges and universities. He was awarded the NCAA's highest honor when he received the Theodore Roosevelt Award, "presented annually to a distinguished citizen of national reputation and outstanding accomplishments." In 2011, Kraft received the Harvard Business School Alumni Achievement Award as well as the prestigious honor of being inducted into the 231st class of American Academy of Arts and Sciences, one of the nation's oldest and most learned societies. In 2012, he became the first NFL owner in the then 44-year history of the George Halas Award to ever receive the honor, which is presented annually to the NFL player, coach or staff member who overcomes the most adversity to succeed. That year, he was also inducted into the Columbia Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2013, he received the Carnegie Hall Medal of Excellence. In 2016, Kraft was inducted into the Broadcasting & Cable Hall of Fame.

Over the past five decades, Robert Kraft has been one of New England's most philanthropic individuals, donating hundreds of millions of dollars in support of local charities, civic affairs and health care. Kraft donated $25 million to Partners HealthCare and its affiliate, Massachusetts General Hospital, to establish the Kraft Center for Community Health, an initiative designed to develop solutions for the most difficult health problems. The Kraft Center services include a mobile health program with a CareZone mobile van, which offers opioid addiction treatments and other health care services in underserved communities throughout Boston. The Kraft family also committed $20 million to Harvard Business School to establish the Kraft Precision Medicine Accelerator, an initiative to pursue programs to realize the potential of precision medicine in care of cancer and other serious diseases. In 2015, Kraft and the Patriots partnered with Massachusetts Attorney General Maura Healey to launch a high school anti-violence education initiative. To date, the Game Change program has provided training in violence prevention for more than 1,700 students, faculty and coaches in over 120 high and middle schools statewide. This year, nearly 80,000 students will be reached by programs led by students trained through Game Change.

Kraft, his heart heavy, lifts NFL

Patriots owner helped bring accord during his wife's final days

"Without him, this deal does not get done. He is a man who helped us save football and we're so [grateful] for that. We're [grateful] for his family and for the opportunity he presented to get this deal done."

-INDIANAPOLIS COLTS C JEFF SATURDAY ON PATRIOTS OWNER ROBERT KRAFT'S ROLE IN THE NEGOTIATIONS OF THE NEW 10-YEAR NFL CBA

Jonathan Kraft is the president of the Kraft Group, the holding company of the Kraft family's varied business interests. He is also the president of the five-time Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots. As president of the Patriots, Kraft oversees the management and strategic planning of each department within the organization. He also works closely with his father to represent the Patriots in all league matters and serves on multiple NFL owner committees.

Kraft's NFL obligations are only a small part of his day-to-day responsibilities, which are as diversified as the many different companies he oversees. The Kraft Group has a variety of interests concentrated in six specific areas: the distribution of forest products, paper and packaging manufacturing, sports and entertainment, real estate development as well as private equity and venture investing. As president, Kraft is responsible for overseeing the operations of each division.

Since his family purchased the team in 1994, Kraft has been the day-to-day driving force behind the rebuilding and rebranding of the franchise, bringing long-overdue stability to the once wayward organization.

Once tenants in the league's poorest venue, the Patriots now play in one of the NFL's premier stadiums.

In the first 25 years of the Kraft family's ownership, the Patriots have won more games and more often than any other NFL team, and Kraft has successfully implemented many initiatives that have accelerated the franchise's many worst-to-first transitions.

From 2000-09, the Patriots set multiple NFL records and earned "Team of the Decade" acclaim from numerous publications. During the first decade of the new millennium, the Patriots established three NFL consecutive win streak records: a 10-game win streak in the postseason, a 21-game overall win streak (including playoff games) and a 21-game regular-season win streak. The Patriots won 126 regular-season games, the most by an NFL team in one decade in the 98-year history of the league. The Patriots also became just the second team in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in four years.

In the past 25 seasons (1994-2018), the Patriots won 311 games (including playoffs) for an average of just over 12 (12.4 avg.) wins per season and captured more Super Bowl titles (5), conference titles (10), division titles (18), playoff wins (32), victories in a single season (18) and victories in a regular season (16) than any other team.

Of all the team's recent achievements, arguably the most significant contribution to the organization's future success was securing financial approval for the construction of a new world-class stadium, the first of its kind in the franchise's history. Kraft developed the creative private-financing strategy for the $325 million construction of Gillette Stadium. Many financial experts dismissed the viability of his plan, which relied on year-round club memberships for new clientele rather than the more conventional sale of private seat licenses to existing season ticket holders. Kraft's unprecedented plan was considered a financial risk, but proved to be universally successful.

Throughout the stadium initiative, no one was more involved in each phase of the project, including the planning, construction, opening and ongoing operation and development of Gillette Stadium. Kraft worked closely with stadium designers to create a world-class sports and entertainment facility that would highlight features indigenous to New England. His team not only delivered on the promise of a fan-friendly facility, but did so on time and under budget. Kraft feels strongly that Gillette Stadium needs to be continually evolving to meet the changing needs of fans. To that end, he was the creative force behind recent stadium enhancements including the Optum Field Lounge, the DraftKings Fantasy Sports Zone and the Cross Insurance Pavilion & Business Center.

Kraft and the project team also drew praise for innovative environmental practices. In June of 2001, the Environmental Business Council presented the Kraft Group with the Environmental Award for Corporate Leadership. In May of 2002, the Kraft Group received New England's Environmental Merit Award from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for the development and construction of Gillette Stadium.

In 2002, Jonathan and Robert Kraft received the Sports Industrialists of the Year award, presented annually by Sports Business Daily. That year, the Krafts celebrated New England's first Super Bowl championship. Just a few months later, they christened their new stadium, earning various awards and acclaim for the project. They negotiated a new naming rights partnership with Gillette and celebrated a spectacular grand opening by hosting the 2002 season premiere of Monday Night Football as Super Bowl champions, presenting both the stadium and their 2001 Super Bowl banner to the fans of New England. One month later, the Krafts' Major League Soccer franchise, the New England Revolution, won the Eastern Conference to qualify for the MLS Cup, which drew over 61,000 fans to Gillette Stadium, the largest crowd in MLS history at that time.

Prior to the Kraft family's ownership, the Patriots' fan base was limited in range and scope. As a lifelong Patriots fan, Kraft was committed to expanding the Patriots fan base through innovative multimedia outreach. Under his directive, the Patriots became the first professional sports team to launch an official web site in March of 1995. Just two years later, the team debuted the first use of streaming video, offering a nightly video update. The Patriots other Internet initiatives include a highly successful e-commerce division, providing Patriots fans around the world easy access to Patriots merchandise and apparel. In 2004, the team showed their commitment to globalizing the Patriots brand when they launched the NFL's first Chinese-language version of their website. Entering the 2018 season, the Patriots have 254 registered fan clubs in 41 countries. The Patriots are also among the top teams in the NFL in terms of social media presence, with more than seven million Facebook fans and four million Twitter followers. As chair of the league's digital committee, Kraft continues to seek innovative ways to enhance the day of game experience for all Patriots fans. Gillette Stadium features one of the league's only ubiquitous WiFi solutions, allowing fans to stay connected throughout the game on their mobile devices. The Patriots mobile app, which gives fans in-stadium access to live streaming of NFL RedZone, among other content, is one of the most advanced in the league.

In April of 1995, the Patriots began publishing Patriots Football Weekly, the first full-color weekly publication offered by a sports team. It appears on newsstands throughout New England and is distributed to Patriots fans throughout the world. In September of 2011, the team launched the iPad-version of PFW, making the Patriots one of the first sports teams in the world to publish a subscription-based digital publication. Following the Super Bowl

XXXVI championship, Kraft commissioned the production of a DVD entitled "3 Games to Glory," providing fans an opportunity to re-live three of the most memorable games in franchise history. Since then, he has overseen the production of four sequels, each featuring over five hours of behind-the-scenes content on a multi-disc DVD set. The Patriots are the only NFL team to produce and sell such extensive commemorative DVDs.

A graduate of Williams College (1986), Kraft is a Trustee Emeritus and former chair of the school's investments committee. He received his MBA from Harvard Business School (1990), where he currently serves on the Dean's Board of Advisors. Kraft is on the board of trustees for the Belmont Hill School, Dexter Southfield and Massachusetts General Hospital, where he chairs the finance committee, and is a member of the MIT Corporation Visiting Committee for the Sloan School of Management. Additionally, Kraft is a finance committee member for Partners HealthCare and sits on the advisory board for the Billie Jean King Leadership Initiative.

Kraft is active in youth athletics and has coached Pop Warner Football, youth soccer and Little League baseball in the greater Boston area. He is also a member of the national Board of Directors for Pop Warner Little Scholars, Inc.

Jonathan and his wife, Patti, have three children.

A DECADE OF DOMINANCE (2000-09)

When Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that just 18 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s. The tallies listed below represent totals during the 2000-2009 seasons.

Comment About Bill Belichick

Mike Shanahan, two-time Super Bowl champion head coach

"When I first got the job [in Denver], Bill left Cleveland and people asked me how I would rank the head coaches. I had Bill number one and Joe Collier and Jeff Fisher as two and three. They kind of laughed at me at that time and they said, 'What do you mean? Why would you rank him there? He didn't have a lot of success in Cleveland.' I said, 'You just wait and see'."

Comment About Bill Belichick

Josh McDaniels, Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach, New England Patriots

(on Bill Belichick's impact on him)

"(He) has meant so much to me, not only professionally but personally. He's really mentored me, taught me how to be a good coach, taught me how to identify a way to win each week, taught me how to evaluate players, taught me how to be a part of the draft. He was a mentor in other ways, a very big influence in my life, from off-the-field things, decisions you had to make, those kinds of things. There was nothing that he turned me away for. He would always be there to give me his advice. To me, that's the greatest thing I got from him - he was willing to help me in any way to become a good coach and a good person."

XXXVIII (2003), XXXIX (2004), XLIX (2014) and LI (2016), and in 2007 he became the only NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season. From 2003 to 2004, Belichick directed the Patriots to a winning streak of 21 consecutive games, including the postseason.

Despite an NFL system designed to ensure parity, Belichick's program has produced a remarkable run of sustained on-field success. From 2000-17, the Patriots won 74.3 percent of their regular-season games (214-74), among the highest winning percentages of any major American professional sports team over that span. Over a 100-game stretch from 2003-09, Belichick directed the team to 81 wins, the most in NFL history by a head coach. Additionally, the Patriots enter 2018 with 115 wins (regular and postseason) in this decade and need 11 wins overall this season to tie

From 2011-17, Belichick's teams won the AFC East title and advanced in the playoffs, with the Patriots' seven straight years of playoff advancement setting a new NFL record, passing Dallas (1991-96) for the longest streak in NFL history. Additionally, New England is the only franchise in the NFL to qualify for the playoffs in each of the last nine seasons (2009-17).

Belichick's 28 career playoff wins are the most all-time among head coaches, while New England's 14 playoff victories from 2000-09 are tied for the most in any decade in NFL history. Since the beginning of the 2003 season, New England is 45-6 (.882) in regular-season games following a loss, dropping back-to-back regular-season contests just six times over that span.

In addition, the Patriots have consistently maintained their focus throughout the year and have played their best football late in the season. Since 2001, the Patriots lead the league with a 105-29 (.784) overall record in games played on Thanksgiving or later in the NFL season, including playoffs. As the season wears on, the Patriots have only gotten better, posting an NFL-best 44-15 (.746) mark since 2001 in games played on Christmas or later in the NFL season and have gone an NFL-best 62-11 (.849) in the month of December. Since becoming Patriots head coach in 2000, Belichick is 64-13 (.831) in December, the best record in December among head coaches with one team in NFL history (min. 25 games). George Seifert is second (27-6, .818). Additionally, Belichick is the first head coach in NFL history to lead a team to three straight 500-point seasons (2010-12) and the Patriots are the first franchise in NFL history to score 500 or more points in four seasons (2007-589, 2010-518, 2011-513 and 2012-557.).

Comments About Bill Belichick

Steve Sabol, former President of NFL Films

(On his choice for best NFL coach of the past decade) "Bill Belichick. He is to this century what Paul Brown was to the previous century. With the way he has built teams, his strategic mind, the success he's had – he would be my easy choice."

Rodney Harrison, 15-year NFL player

"I have a great deal of respect for him. He's the best coach that ever coached the game."

Comment About Bill Belichick

Roger Staubach, Hall of Fame quarterback, January 2005

"He's really special. I've always been a Bill Belichick person. He's got great roots. He's got an aura about him. He's got the fire you want to see, but he always gives other people credit."

in his 37th career playoff game in the Divisional Playoff win vs. Tennessee and enters 2018 with 39 postseason appearances. He also extended his NFL record with his 28th career playoff win.

With a win over the N.Y. Jets in the regular-season finale, Belichick secured his 250th career regular-season victory, tying Tom Landry for third-most wins by a head coach in NFL history behind Don Shula (328) and George Halas (318). With a 13-3 record in 2017, Belichick is the first coach in NFL history with 13 or more wins in seven different seasons.

Belichick's recent accomplishments are the latest triumphs in an NFL coaching career that began in 1975, during which he has helped produce seven Super Bowl titles, 11 conference championships and 22 division titles. Now in his 44th season in the NFL, he has more years of NFL experience than any of the other 31 active head coaches. He won his first two Super Bowls as the defensive coordinator for the New York Giants in 1986 and again in 1990 before claiming five Super Bowl championships with the Patriots.

THE PATRIOT YEARS

Once he became Patriots head coach, Belichick needed just one season to successfully implement his plan for success. In 2001, his second season in charge, the Patriots rebounded from a 5-11 record in 2000 to improve to 11-5, tying what was then the franchise record for regular-season wins. With a 20-17 victory over the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, the Patriots tied the franchise's then-record of 14 overall wins. In 2003 and 2004, the Patriots eclipsed those marks in each season, posting identical 14-2 records in the regular season and notching 17 total wins and a Super Bowl title in each year.

From 2003-04, Belichick directed the Patriots through the most prosperous two-year period for any team in NFL history, netting back-to-back Super Bowl victories and consecutive 17-2 campaigns. The team's 34 victories from 2003-04 mark the highest two-year win total in the NFL's 98-year history. An overall winning streak of 21 consecutive

HALL OF FAMERS

From 1981-88, Coach Belichick tutored the linebackers for the New York Giants. His unit featured Lawrence Taylor and Harry Carson, both of whom are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

THE BELICHICK LIBRARY

Coach Belichick is an avid collector of football-related books, and along with his late father, Steve, amassed a library of more than 800 volumes. The library is believed to be one of the largest collection of football books in the world, behind the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Library of Congress. In 2006, Coach Belichick moved his entire library to the Naval Academy, where his father coached for 33 years. The books are housed in a display at Ricketts Hall in Annapolis for future generations of football players, coaches and fans to enjoy.

Coach Belichick has been honored with numerous awards in recognition of his success with the Patriots. He has earned NFL Coach of the Year honors from the Associated Press three times (2003, 2007 and 2010) and has finished in the top five in AP voting for NFL Coach of the Year Award seven other times (1994, 2001, 02, 04, 05, 08, and 14). SUPER COMEBACK

Bill Belichick coached the Patriots back from a 25-point deficit to win Super Bowl LI. A comeback of that magnitude is extremely rare. There have been 2,656 games where a team led by 25 points or more in NFL history, including the postseason. Those teams are 2,689-7-2, a winning percentate of .997.

games, including the postseason – also unprecedented in NFL annals – spanned the two seasons. New England was undefeated at home in both 2003 and 2004, and set a franchise record by winning 21 straight home games from 2002-05.

During the 2004 season, the Patriots tied the regular-season record by a defending Super Bowl champion (14-2). New England capped off the year with another memorable playoff run, culminating in a 24-21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

In 2005, New England won 11 games despite being forced to use 45 different starters, an NFL record for a division champion. After starting the season 4-4 and facing a rash of injuries, the Patriots won six of their next seven games to claim their third straight division title.

In 2006, Belichick directed the Patriots to a berth in the AFC Championship game for the third time in four years and for the fourth time in six seasons. New England won the AFC East division for the fourth consecutive season and set a franchise record by allowing just 14.8 points per game. The Patriots' 14 total victories tied what was then the second highest total in franchise history.

In 2007, Coach Belichick earned Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year honors as the Patriots became the fourth team in the league's 98-year history to complete an undefeated regular season and the first to achieve the feat since the NFL increased the number of regular-season games from 14 to 16 in 1978. Belichick joined Pro Football Hall of Famers George Halas and Don Shula as the only head coaches to complete undefeated regular seasons. New England's 18 overall victories in 2007 tied the 1985 Chicago Bears and the 1984 San Francisco 49ers for the most in league history. New England became the first team in NFL history and the first major American pro sports team since 1884 to open a season with 18 straight wins. The Patriots set the then-NFL records for points (589) and touchdowns (75), while their +315 point differential still stands as the best in NFL history.

In 2008, Belichick led the Patriots to an 11-5 record. Despite losing QB Tom Brady to a season-ending injury in Week 1, New England ranked among the NFL's top 10 teams in 2008 in terms of yards gained (5th), points scored (8th), fewest yards allowed (10th) and fewest points allowed (8th), marking the fourth time the club finished in the top 10 in all of those categories since joining the NFL in 1970. The Patriots also finished in the top 10 in all those categories in 2015 and 2016. At the conclusion of the regular season, the Patriots were among the league's hottest teams, winning five of their last six games and going undefeated in December (4-0).

In 2009, the Patriots finished the season with a 10-6 record and claimed another AFC East title. They became the first team to win more than half of their games in nine straight seasons since free agency began in 1993.

In 2010, Coach Belichick led a very young squad to an NFL-best 14-2 record, a division title and its eighth playoff appearance in his 11 seasons as New England's head coach, receiving several major awards in the process. Belichick was named Associated Press Coach of the Year for the third time, joining Don Shula (four-time winner) and Chuck Knox as the only three-time winners. In addition, Belichick earned Peter King's SI.com and Pro Football Weekly Coach of the Year.

Coach Belichick guided the Patriots to a league-best 518 points scored in 2010, third-most in franchise history behind the team's 589 points in 2007 and 557 in 2012. The club record +28 turnover differential was a contributing factor to New England eclipsing 500 points for just the second time

Tony LaRussa, World Series-winning baseball manager

"I get a big kick out of the perception publicly — all the media, and mostly the fans, because they don't see [and] he doesn't give you much. He's not there to draw attention to himself. But if you get in a social situation around Bill, he's got so much personality. He's interesting. He's funny. He's a great friend. I can't respect our relationship more than I do. He's about as good a friend as you can expect to have. If you go to dinner, you're going to talk about a lot of subjects. It's real apparent that Bill has no ego. He's not there to impress you about his championships. He's just sharing and asking. He shares with guys he knows are interested. It's like going to graduate school times 100."

Comment About Bill Belichick

Urban Meyer, three-time NCAA national championship-winning head coach
(on his visit to New England Patriots offseason program)

"I saw the way, in my mind, the best coach in professional sports - not basketball, not football, not baseball, but in all sports - handled his team.... we're talking about arguably one of the greatest coaches of all time."

in team history. Belichick's constant emphasis on protecting the football paid off with two NFL records. The Patriots went an NFL-record seven consecutive games without committing a turnover. No other NFL team had gone longer than four straight games without turning the ball over. The Patriots had just 10 turnovers in 2010 (five interceptions and five fumbles), which tied an NFL record for fewest turnovers in a season.

In 2011, Belichick guided the Patriots to a 13-3 record, his fifth AFC Conference Championship, an appearance in Super Bowl XLVI and the team's ninth division title. Under Belichick's guidance, the Patriots finished the 2011 season with 6,848 total net yards, setting a new franchise record for most total net yards in a season. That total is fifth all-time in NFL history.

In 2012, Belichick became the eighth head coach in NFL history to record 200 overall victories and in the process, guaranteed a .500 or better record for the Patriots for the 12th straight season with a 12-4 record. Additionally, the Patriots made their second consecutive AFC Championship Game appearance and seventh overall under Belichick.

From 2003-12, Belichick won more regular-season games (126) and more games overall (140) over a 10-year stretch than any other head coach in NFL history. He repeated the same feat by winning 126 games from 2007-16.

In 2013, Belichick guided New England to a 12-4 record, a fifth consecutive AFC East crown and third straight appearance in the AFC Championship Game. With his fifth victory of the season in 2013, Belichick passed Chuck Noll for fifth place on the NFL wins list with his 210th win as a head coach. With the victory over Indianapolis in the Divisional Playoff, Belichick collected his 19th playoff win to tie Don Shula for the second-most postseason wins among head coaches.

In 2014, Belichick led the Patriots to a win in Super Bowl XLIX, his fourth Super Bowl win as a head coach, matching Chuck Noll for the most Super Bowl victories. In the process, he won three postseason games to set an NFL record for career playoff victories by a head coach.

Belichick earned his 21st career postseason victory in the AFC Championship Game vs. Indianapolis on Jan. 18, 2015, passing Tom Landry for the most playoff wins by a head coach in NFL history.

Belichick passed Curly Lambeau for sole possession of fourth place on the all-time wins list with his 230th career victory, a 17-16 win at N.Y. Jets on Dec. 21, 2014.

He added to his record with his 12th straight season with 10 or more wins and won his 12th division title.

Belichick earned his 200th regular-season victory as a head coach after the Patriots' 30-7 win at Minnesota on Sept. 14, 2014. He became just the sixth NFL head coach to reach that mark, joining Don Shula (328), George Halas (318), Tom Landry (250), Curly Lambeau (226) and Marty Schottenheimer (200).

Bill Belichick has led the Patriots to 17 straight winning seasons (2001-2017), second all-time, behind 20 by Tom Landry (1966-85).

Former NFL Head Coach Rex Ryan

In the process, he won his 26th career playoff game, adding to his NFL record and tying Tom Landry and Don Shula by coaching in his 36th postseason game in Super Bowl LI.

Belichick led the Patriots to a 14-2 regular-season record to become the first head coach to win at least 14 regular-season games in five separate seasons. He also captured his 14th AFC East title, passing Tom Landry and Don Shula with 13. It was the eighth consecutive division crown for New England, which is also an NFL record.

With a win vs. N.Y. Jets in Week 16, Belichick won his 200th regular-season game with the Patriots, becoming the fifth NFL coach to reach 200 regular-season wins with one team.

A COACHING JOURNEY

Belichick began his coaching career after graduating from Wesleyan University and accepting a staff assistant position with the Baltimore Colts in 1975. At the age of 23, he was named special assistant to Head Coach Ted Marchibroda. In 1976, Belichick joined Rick Forzano's staff with the Detroit Lions as an assistant special teams coach. The following year, he was given his first positional coaching assignment as the Lions' tight ends and receivers coach. In 1978, Denver Broncos Head Coach Red Miller hired Belichick as the assistant special teams coach and assistant to defensive coordinator Joe Collier.

Belichick then spent 12 seasons with the New York Giants (1979-90) before becoming head coach of the Cleveland Browns (1991-95). He later joined Bill Parcells for several seasons as assistant head coach/secondary with New England (1996) and assistant head coach/secondary with the N.Y. Jets (1997-99) before returning to Foxborough.

Belichick returned to the Patriots as head coach after three seasons with the New York Jets as the team's assistant head coach/secondary coach, holding the responsibility of calling the team's defensive plays. In 1998, the Jets surrendered just 266 points, propelling the team to its first division title. After finishing the regular season with a franchise-best 12-4 overall record, the Jets advanced to the AFC Championship Game. In his first season with the Jets in 1997, Belichick's defense surrendered just 287 points, an average of 17.9 points per game, marking a significant 10.5-point per-game improvement from 1996.

NEW YORK GIANTS (1979-90)

In 1979, Belichick joined Ray Perkins' staff with the New York Giants as a defensive assistant and special teams coach, launching a 12-year tenure with the Giants. After the 1980 campaign, he drew the added responsibility of coaching the Giants linebackers. In 1983, he began coordinating the defense on Bill Parcells' staff and continued coaching the linebackers, a unit that would become known as one of the most dominant groups of all-time, featuring Pro Football Hall of Famers Lawrence Taylor and Harry Carson. He was officially appointed defensive coordinator in 1985, a position he held for the next six seasons. During his time as the Giants' defensive signal caller, his units were never ranked lower than 11th in the NFL and finished as high as second in the league three times, including the Super Bowl seasons of 1986 and 1990. Belichick's contributions with the Giants throughout the 1980s brought him national recognition as one of the best young assistant coaches in the NFL.

CLEVELAND BROWNS (1991-95)

Prior to joining the Patriots as an assistant, Belichick spent five seasons (1991-95) rebuilding the Cleveland Browns, whose 3-13 finish the year prior to his arrival was, up until that point, the worst in the history of the franchise. By 1994, the Browns were one of NFL's best teams, boasting the second-best record in the AFC.

Belichick's first head coaching opportunity came following the 1990 season, when his defensive efforts with the New York Giants helped claim a second Super Bowl title in five years. At the age of 38, he became the NFL's youngest head coach. In his first season, Belichick began the rebuilding process by restoring the foundation of the aging squad he inherited. In 1991, the Browns improved to 6-10 and played in 11 games that were decided by a touchdown or less.

Following back-to-back 7-9 campaigns in 1992 and 1993, the Browns improved to 11-5 in 1994, a mark that is still tied for the second highest victory total in the 64-year history of the Browns franchise. The 1994 squad was defined by its defense, which allowed a league-low 204 points. In their return to the playoffs, the Browns defeated the Patriots, 20-13, in a first-round Wild Card game on New Year's Day 1995.

The 1995 season was disrupted by the mid-season announcement that the Cleveland Browns franchise would be moved to Baltimore at the conclusion of the campaign. The announcement caused an undeniable mid-season distraction contributing to a 5-11 finish. Belichick did not accompany the franchise's move to Baltimore after the 1995 season.

AN ASSISTANT WITH THE PATRIOTS

Patriots fans witnessed Belichick's impact on a team firsthand in 1996 when he joined the Patriots after five seasons as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns. That year, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years with an 11-5 record and won their first two playoff games at Foxboro Stadium to advance to Super Bowl XXXI. The 1996 Patriots defense allowed just 19.6 points per game and forced 34 turnovers, second in the AFC. In two playoff games, the defense allowed just nine points combined, propelling the Patriots to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI against Green Bay.

Eight former assistant coaches on Coach Belichick's staffs in Cleveland or New England have gone on to become head coaches at the NFL or collegiate level.

DEFENSIVE LINE

COACHING

Brendan Daly enters his fourth season as defensive line coach and fifth overall with New England after one season as a defensive coaching assistant in 2014. Daly came to the Patriots in 2014 after coaching defensive line for the Minnesota Vikings for two seasons (2012-13), his second stint with the team.

In 2017, Daly's defensive line was part of a unit that ranked No. 5 in points allowed (18.5 per game).

While with Minnesota, Daly coached a defensive line that ranked 16th in the NFL against the rush in 2013. The 2012 Vikings defense improved over the previous season and keyed the club's run to a 10-6 mark and a playoff berth.

Prior to his return to Minnesota in 2012, Daly spent three seasons (2009-11) coaching the St. Louis Rams defensive line. During his tenure in St. Louis, Daly helped defensive end Chris Long to a career-best 13.0 sack performance in 2011, good for seventh in the NFL and fourth among defensive ends. The 2010 Rams notched 43 sacks as a team, seventh-most in the NFL that season.

Daly started his NFL coaching career on the Minnesota Vikings staff from 2006-08 as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach, where he helped the Vikings defensive line build on their reputation as a run-stuffing unit. During his tenure, the Vikings became the first team in NFL history to lead the league in rushing defense for three consecutive seasons (2006-08) and held opponents to fewer than 75 yards rushing per game in each of those seasons. The Vikings line featured DTs Pat Williams and Kevin Williams, who each made Pro Bowl appearances in all three seasons, and Jared Allen, who earned a spot in the Pro Bowl in his first season with the team after being acquired in a trade with Kansas City in 2008.

Daly worked in the college ranks as the defensive line coach at Villanova in 2005 and tight ends coach at Illinois State in 2004. From 2001-03, Daly was on the staff at Oklahoma State as a graduate assistant (2001-02) and an assistant strength & conditioning coach. He got his coaching start at Ridgewood High School in New Port Richie, Fla., in 1997, before moving on to his alma mater, Drake, in 1998, to coach tight ends. Daly then coached tight ends at Villanova in 1999 and was a graduate assistant at Maryland in 2000.

RUNNING BACKS

COACHING

Ivan Fears, a 42-year coaching veteran, is in his 28th season in the NFL and his 22nd with the New England Patriots in 2018. He returned to New England in 1999 after beginning his NFL coaching career with the Patriots in 1991. Since returning, he has enjoyed 15 division championships, eight conference titles and five Super Bowl championships. He is in his 17th season as running backs coach, after having coached New England's wide receivers from 1999-2001 and previously from 1991-92.

Under Fears' guidance since 2002, the Patriots running backs have helped the team finish in the top 10 in offense 12 times in the last 16 seasons: 2017(1) 2016 (4), 2015 (6), 2013 (7), 2012 (1), 2011 (2), 2010 (8), 2009 (3), 2008 (5), 2007 (1), 2005 (7) and 2004 (7). Fears has also coached four different 1,000-yard rushers from his current post: Corey Dillon (franchise record of 1,625) in 2004, BenJarvus Green-Ellis (1,008) in 2010, Stevan Ridley (1,263) in 2012 and LeGarrette Blount (1,161) in 2016.

Fears' other notable accomplishments with Patriots running backs include LeGarrette Blount setting a new franchise record with 18 rushing touchdowns in 2016 and Danny Woodhead setting a franchise mark with 5.6 yards per carry (minimum 90 attempts) in 2010, topping Don Calhoun's previous team mark of 5.59 set in 1976.

In 2008, the Patriots had their best rushing season in more than 20 years, averaging 4.4 yards per carry and totaling 2,278 yards and 21 rushing touchdowns. Fears' running backs also helped to consistently sustain drives, as the Patriots led the league in rushing first downs (145) and in drives of 10 plays or longer (38).

In 2004, the Patriots averaged 4.07 yards per carry, the most since 1985 (4.13-yard avg.). Dillon set the team's single-season rushing record with 1,635 yards and led the NFL with an average of 109.0 yards per game in which he appeared.

Fears took on running backs duties in 2002, and in his first season the position produced 1,508 yards rushing – the second highest total by the Patriots since 1996.

As receivers coach in 2001, Fears helped both Troy Brown and David Patten produce career years. Brown established a franchise record with 101 receptions for a career-high 1,199 yards and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl. It was Brown's first 1,000-yard season. Patten, who entered the season with just 71 career receptions in four seasons, claimed the starting role opposite Brown and was credited with 51 receptions for 749 yards and four touchdowns.

Fears originally joined the professional coaching ranks as the receivers coach on Dick MacPherson's staff with the Patriots in 1991. After two seasons in New England, he accepted a position with the Chicago Bears, where he coached the receivers for six seasons (1993-98) before returning to New England in 1999.

In 1991, his receiving corps featured Irving Fryar, Greg McMurtry and Michael Timpson. That year, Fryar turned in the first 1,000-yard season of his career, finishing with 1,014 yards on 68 receptions (14.9 avg.).

In 1993, Fears joined the Chicago Bears and inherited the team's first-round selection, Curtis Conway. In 1994, the Bears added Jeff Graham, a reserve receiver from the Steelers, and Fears helped develop the two into one of the premier receiving tandems in the league over a two-year span. In his first year with the Bears, Graham started 15 games and led the team with 68 receptions for 944 yards. In 1995, Conway and Graham became the first receiving tandem in franchise history to each record over 1,000 yards receiving in a single season. In 1996, Conway produced a career-high 81 receptions for 1,049 yards and became the first player in Bears history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons.

Fears began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at William & Mary in 1976. In 1977, he drew his first positional responsibilities coaching receivers. His next two seasons (1978-79), he coached quarterbacks before accepting the role as receivers coach at Syracuse in 1980, a position he held for the next 10 seasons.

PLAYING

A three-year letterman as a running back at William & Mary (1973-75), his playing career was cut short after undergoing three knee operations during his collegiate career.

PERSONAL

Fears was born Nov. 15, 1954 in Portsmouth, Va. He grew up in Suffolk, Va., where he starred at John Yates High and was twice named the school's Outstanding Player of the Year. He also earned all-state honors as a senior. Fears and his wife, Beverly, have three children, Joshua, Aaron and Kimberly.

SUPER BOWLS: 14 16

COACHING

Joe Judge enters his fourth season as the special teams coach, following three seasons as the assistant special teams coach. Judge was promoted to the position following Scott O'Brien's retirement from coaching in 2015.

Patriots special teams units have enjoyed successful seasons in Judge's first six years with New England. Under Judge's guidance in 2017, the kickoff and kickoff receiving teams each finished third in the NFL in average drive start position. Additionally, RB Dion Lewis led the AFC and finished fourth in the NFL with a 24.8 yards-per return average and earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after returning a kickoff 103 yards for a touchdown in a Week 10 game at Denver. P Ryan Allen also enjoyed a successful season under Judge, limiting opponents to just 23 punt returns for a 4.6 yard average, the lowest in team history. Special teamer Matthew Slater was selected to his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl, matching Steve Tasker for most special teams Pro Bowl honors in NFL history.

In 2016, Judge's kickoff team led the AFC in kickoff drive start position and finished third in the NFL, while finishing second in the league in drive start position in 2015. Additionally, the kickoff return team finished seventh in the NFL in kickoff return drive start and fourth in the AFC in 2016. Judge's punt teams have enjoyed similar success, finishing second in the NFL in punt coverage and second in opponents return average. As a punt returner, WR Danny Amendola led the entire NFL in punt return average in 2015 while averaging 12 yards-per-return. Having worked with Judge since 2012, WR Julian Edelman has become one of the most efficient punt returners in the NFL. In 2012, Edelman averaged 15.5 yards-per-return while being limited by injury to only 17 punt returns that season. Edelman has become second all-time in Patriots history with a career punt return average of 11.7 yards, which also tied him for eighth all-time in the NFL for punt return average. Likewise, Judge has overseen some standout kickoff return performances. In 2016, RB Dion Lewis scored on the longest kickoff return touchdown in team postseason history with a 98-yard return for a touchdown vs. Houston in the AFC Divisional Playoff. In 2015, WR Keshawn Martin had the longest kickoff return in the AFC with his 75-yard return vs. Tennessee. In the 2016 postseason, DB Jonathan Jones finished tied for first in the NFL in postseason special teams tackles.

In addition to K Stephen Gostkowski leading the NFL in scoring for four of the past six seasons under Judge's tutelage, Gostkowski was also elected to the Pro Bowl in 2013, 2014 and 2015. With 156 points in 2017, Gostkowski became the first player in NFL history with five 150-point seasons. He is one of three players to lead the league in scoring for at least five seasons. Under Judge's guidance, Gostkowski has been named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week five times and AFC Special Teams Player of the Month twice, while Allen has earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week twice while working with Judge. Additionally, under Judge's tutelage Allen has become the Patriots all-time leader in punt average with a 45.7 career average. As a rookie in 2013, Allen set a Patriots rookie record with his 39.9 net average on punts and in 2016, finished second in the AFC in net punt average. Additionally, Matthew Slater has been selected to seven straight Pro Bowls as a special teamer and earned Associated Press First Team: All-Pro honors for the first time in his career in 2016, while Nate Ebner tied for the NFL lead in special teams tackles. Slater and Ebner were also the only two special teams players in the entire NFL to be selected to the All-Pro team.

In Judge's first season in 2012, New England led the NFL in extra points and finished second in punt return yards and fewest punt return yards allowed. In 2013, the Patriots finished tied for most field goals made and field goal percentage. In 2016, the field goal unit led the league in field goals made and was second in field goal percentage. In his first five years in New England, Judge's field goal blocking unit has the second-most blocked field goals across the entire NFL with seven blocked field goals.

Judge came to the Patriots after a three-year stint at the University of Alabama as a football analyst under coach Nick Saban. While on the Alabama staff, Judge was a member of two National Championship teams in 2009 and 2011 and assisted with the special teams units. At Alabama, Judge's special teams units boasted a First-Team All American kicker and Groza Award finalist (Leigh Tiffin, 2009), a First-Team All American return specialist (Javier Arenas, 2009), an SEC All-Freshman team punter (Cody Mandell, 2010) and a returner who finished his career ranked second all-time in NCAA return yards (Arenas).

Prior to going to Alabama, Judge spent one season at Birmingham-Southern where he served as special teams/linebackers coach in 2008. He began his coaching career at Mississippi State as a graduate assistant under Sylvester Croom from 2005-07. While at Mississippi State, Judge tutored a freshman All-SEC punter, five All-SEC linebackers and a returner who finished as the all-time SEC leader in career return yards and kickoff return yards.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

COACHING

Josh McDaniels was named New England Patriots offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the 2012 season after he re-joined the Patriots coaching staff in January 2012 as an offensive assistant. The 2018 season will be McDaniels' 15th season with the Patriots overall and his 10th as the team's offensive coordinator.

In nine seasons as offensive coordinator, McDaniels has guided the offense to seven top-10 rankings, including the NFL's No. 1 ranked offense in 2007, 2012 and 2017. Additionally, Tom Brady has been elected to the Pro Bowl seven times and eclipsed 4,000 yards passing for the ninth time in 2017 en route to being named the NFL's Most Valuable Player for the third time in his career.

In 2016 under McDaniels' and assistant quarterbacks coach Jerry Schuplinski's guidance, Patriots quarterbacks set NFL records by starting the season with 258 pass attempts without an interception. They threw just two interceptions overall and notched the best touchdown to interception ratio (16.00) in a single season. McDaniels also earned his fifth Super Bowl ring as a coach in 2016, his second as the Patriots offensive coordinator.

McDaniels left the Patriots to become the head coach of Denver in 2009 and in 2011, McDaniels moved on to St. Louis to become the offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams. Under McDaniels' guidance that season, Rams RB Steven Jackson eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the seventh consecutive season despite running behind an offensive line that started eight different combinations over the course of the season.

McDaniels spent the 2009-10 seasons as the head coach of the Denver Broncos after serving as an assistant with the Patriots from 2001-08. In his first stint with New England, McDaniels played a key role on a staff that won three Super Bowl titles and four AFC championships.

He first joined the Patriots organization as a personnel assistant on the 2001 team that defeated the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, served as a defensive assistant on the 2003 club that won Super Bowl XXXVIII and was promoted to quarterbacks coach in 2004, a season that culminated with a victory over the Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

In addition to his role with Patriots quarterbacks, McDaniels added the title of offensive coordinator in 2006. In his second season as New England's offensive play caller in 2007, McDaniels oversaw a unit that broke several NFL records, including points scored, touchdowns scored and most players scoring a touchdown.

Under McDaniels' tutelage, 2007 NFL MVP Tom Brady broke the NFL record for touchdown passes in a season (50) and led the league in both passing yards (4,806) and passer rating (117.2). Brady also set franchise marks in nearly every major passing category, while WR Wes Welker set the franchise record for receptions in a season (112) and WR Randy Moss broke the NFL record for touchdown receptions with 23. The Patriots offense also posted the franchise's highest average yards per rush in 22 seasons with 4.1 yards per carry, and the team's 17 rushing touchdowns were the second highest total in the previous 20 years.

During McDaniels' first season in Denver, QB Kyle Orton set career-highs for pass attempts, completions, passing yards, touchdown passes and passer rating while tying his career low for interceptions. Orton's 3,802 yards were the sixth-highest for a season in Broncos history. In 2010, the Broncos ranked seventh in the NFL in passing yards per game and finished 13th in total yards per game. WR Brandon Lloyd led the NFL in receiving yards with 1,448 and finished second in the AFC with 11 touchdown catches en route to his first Pro Bowl invitation.

Entering 2018, Brady has been elected to nine Pro Bowls during his 10 seasons with McDaniels serving as his position coach. After Brady suffered a season-ending knee injury in the 2008 regular-season opener, another McDaniels protégé, Matt Cassel, led the club to a 10-5 record as a starter. In his first season as an NFL starter, Cassel posted the fourth-best completion percentage in Patriots history (63.4) while passing for 3,693 yards with 21 touchdowns and 11 interceptions.

Prior to joining Bill Belichick's staff, McDaniels spent one season as a graduate assistant under Nick Saban at Michigan State.

PLAYING

McDaniels attended John Carroll University, where he played quarterback and wide receiver for the Blue Streaks from 1995-98. McDaniels was a college teammate of former NFL linebacker London Fletcher, Patriots director of player personnel Nick Caserio, assistant quarterbacks coach Jerry Schuplinski and director of pro personnel Dave Ziegler.

PERSONAL

A native of Canton, Ohio, McDaniels is the son of one of the most well-respected high school coaches in the country. Thom McDaniels was a finalist for the NFL High School Coach of the Year award in 2012, and Josh benefitted from growing up in a football family.

Josh and his wife, Laura, have four children.

Chad O'Shea was hired as the Patriots wide receivers coach on Feb. 25, 2009. He is entering his 23rd coaching season and his 16th NFL season.

New England's wide receivers have set franchise and NFL records under O'Shea's tutelage. In 2017, Brandin Cooks became the 11th player in Patriots history to reach 1,000 yards receiving in a season. In 2016, Julian Edelman became just the sixth player in team history with at least two 1,000-yard receiving seasons. In 2014, in his first year with New England, Brandon LaFell set career highs with 74 receptions for 953 yards and seven touchdowns. In 2013, Edelman (105) became just the third player in team history to eclipse 100 receptions in a single season. In 2012, Wes Welker became the Patriots' all-time leader in receptions and became the first player in NFL history with five 100-catch seasons. In 2011, Welker set a franchise record with 1,569 receiving yards and became the second player in NFL history to record two 120-catch seasons. Patriots receivers also aided Tom Brady to the third-most passing yards (5,235) in a single season in NFL history.

O'Shea joined the Patriots in 2009 after spending three seasons as offensive assistant/wide receivers coach for the Minnesota Vikings (2006-08), assisting Minnesota's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. In 2008, Minnesota wide receiver Bernard Berrian ranked second in the NFL with an average of 20.8 yards per catch, and the Vikings offense led the NFL with 13 touchdown receptions of 20 yards or longer. In 2007, the Vikings offense tied a team record with 19 plays of 50 yards or longer.

O'Shea's first NFL experience came with the Kansas City Chiefs, where he served as a volunteer special teams assistant in 2003 and assisted with special teams and linebackers for two seasons from 2004-05. In 2003, Kansas City had an NFL-best four special teams touchdowns while leading the NFL in both kick return and punt return average. The following season, the Chiefs set a team record for kick return yards (1,820) as Dante Hall returned two kickoffs for touchdowns.

Prior to entering the NFL, O'Shea spent seven years coaching in the college ranks at his alma mater, the University of Houston (1996-99), and Southern Mississippi (2000-02). After graduation, he was a graduate assistant at Houston in 1996 and was hired as Houston's wide receivers coach in 1997. He took over as tight ends/special teams coach in 1998 and added the title of recruiting coordinator in 1999. In 2000, he began a three-year stint as Southern Mississippi's special teams coach and recruiting coordinator. During his time with the Eagles, his units blocked 21 kicks.

OFFENSIVE LINE

COACHING

Dante Scarnecchia returned to coaching the New England Patriots offensive line in 2016 and is now in his 47th coaching season. He re-joined the coaching staff in 2016 after a two-year retirement. Scarnecchia is a 46-year coaching veteran who is enjoying his 35th season as an NFL assistant. He owns the longest coaching tenure in Patriots history, now entering his 33rd season on the Patriots sidelines and is the longest current tenured NFL coach. The last NFL coach to garner at least 30 seasons with one team was Dick Hoak, who spent an NFL-record 35 seasons as an assistant with Pittsburgh. Since joining the NFL in 1982, he has spent all but two of his coaching seasons (1989-90) with the Patriots. He has enjoyed 16 division championships, nine conference titles and four Super Bowl championships.

Scarnecchia has been on the Patriots coaching staff during 20 of the franchise's 25 playoff seasons and has coached in 45 of the 54 playoff games in team history.

In 2017, Scarnecchia coached an offensive line that led the NFL in total offense and passing yards and finished second in scoring. For the 18th season in 2018, Scarnecchia's primary responsibility will be the offensive line, a position he has coached for 31 of his 47 seasons in the profession. Bill Belichick named Scarnecchia the Patriots assistant head coach/offensive line coach on Feb. 1, 2000, a position he would hold until his retirement after the 2013 season.

Throughout Scarnecchia's tenure as offensive line coach, the offense has flourished, finishing near the top of the major statistical categories nearly every season.

One of Scarnecchia's major coaching accomplishments came in 2009, when the Patriots' offensive line allowed just 18 sacks, the fewest in New England history since the NFL moved to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2007, Scarnecchia was named SI.com's NFL Assistant Coach of the Year. Anchored by an offensive line that sent three players to the Pro Bowl (C Dan Koppen, T Matt Light and G Logan Mankins), the Patriots offense broke several NFL records, including total points and touchdowns. The offensive line powered a Patriots rushing attack that posted the franchise's highest average yards per rush in 22 years (4.10). Protected by the line, NFL MVP Tom Brady broke the NFL record for touchdown passes in a season (50) and led the league in both passing yards (4,806) and passer rating (117.2, also a franchise record).

New England's protection up front has been a significant contributor to the team's Super Bowl winning seasons. In 2016, Scarnecchia's offensive line paved the way for RB LeGarrette Blount to score a franchise record 18 rushing touchdowns. In 2004, the line opened holes for running back Corey Dillon to set a single-season franchise record with 1,635 rushing yards and led the NFL with 109.0 yards per game played. In 2003, the offensive line did not allow a sack in any of the team's three postseason games despite 126 pass attempts. In 2001, Scarnecchia worked with a unit that featured three new starters, but still produced a powerful rushing attack and a balanced passing attack on the way to the franchise's first Super Bowl victory.

Prior to becoming offensive line coach, Scarnecchia coached the Patriots special teams units for two seasons (1997-98).

Scarnecchia originally joined the Patriots and made his NFL coaching debut in 1982 as a member of Ron Meyer's staff. He coached the tight ends and special teams for the Patriots for seven seasons (1982-88) before moving on to Indianapolis with Meyer in 1989. He rejoined the Patriots in 1991 after spending two seasons (1989-90) as the Colts offensive line coach. From 1991 to 1992, he coached the tight ends and special teams on Dick MacPherson's staff. On Nov. 4, 1992, MacPherson fell ill and appointed Scarnecchia to serve as the team's spokesman in his absence. Scarnecchia fulfilled the obligation for seven of the Patriots' final eight games and held the responsibilities of the head coach for both of the Patriots' victories that season.

In 1993, Scarnecchia was the only Patriots assistant retained from the previous staff. He was appointed special assistant from 1993-94, which was re-defined as defensive assistant from 1995-96. During that time, he assisted defensive coordinator Al Groh with the development of the team's linebacking corps.

Scarnecchia's coaching career began in 1970 as the offensive line coach at California Western University. He moved to Iowa State in 1973, where he served as the assistant offensive line and assistant defensive backfield coach. He spent the 1975 and 1976 campaigns at Southern Methodist University, before becoming the University of Pacific's offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 1977 through 1978. In 1979, Scarnecchia coached at Northern Arizona and then accepted an opportunity to return to Meyer's staff at SMU as the offensive line coach in 1980 and 1981. COACHING

Jerry Schuplinski enters his third season as the assistant quarterbacks coach after three seasons as a coaching assistant with the Patriots. Under Schuplinski's guidance in 2017, Tom Brady was elected to the Pro Bowl and eclipsed 4,000 yards passing en route to being named the NFL's Most Valuable Player for the third time in his career. Additionally, Schuplinski helped coach an offense that led the NFL in total offense and passing yards and finished second in scoring.

In 2016 under offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Josh McDaniels and Schuplinski's guidance, Patriots quarterbacks set NFL records with 258 pass attempts to start the season without an interception. They threw just two interceptions overall and had the best touchdown to interception ratio (16.00) in a single season. Additionally in 2016, Schuplinski's early-season work with quarterbacks Jimmy Garoppolo and Jacoby Brissett helped steer the Patriots to a 3-1 record in Tom Brady's absence.

Schuplinski was added to the New England Patriots coaching staff in 2013, entering the NFL after six seasons as the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at Case Western Reserve. During his tenure at Case Western, he tutored 22 UAA-All-Conference selections.

EXTRA POINTS

- ★ Allen initially enrolled at Oregon State and competed for a spot as the team's punter with current Los Angeles Rams punter Johnny Hekker, a competition that Hekker won. Initially discouraged, Allen said that bump in the road helped him become a better punter and eventually win a job in the NFL.

  "They [Oregon State] ended up choosing him [Hekker] at the end of the day. I took it rough and kind of hung my head. So he got the scholarship, but as I got better, I thought I could definitely go play somewhere else. That's how I made the decision to transfer once that time came."

  Allen transferred to Louisiana Tech in 2010 and went on to become the best punter in the NCAA.
- ★ Named the Ray Guy Award winner, given to nation's top collegiate punter, in 2011 and 2012, to become the first player to claim the award in back-to-back seasons.

EXTRA POINTS

★ Adam Butler arrived at Vanderbilt as an accomplished high school offensive lineman and spent his freshman season redshirting as a backup at center and guard. During his first offseason, Butler entered a rib eating contest, which judges ruled his team had lost. Butler disagreed and began arguing with the judges. Then Commodore defensive coordinator Bob Shoop was in attendance and witnessed Butler's demeanor and was impressed with his competitive attitude. Shoop convinced then head coach James Franklin to ask Butler to transition to defense.

"Coach Franklin brought me into his office and he asked me what I wanted, and I wanted whatever was best for the team," said Butler. "Because we were so short on defensive linemen at that time, that's how it happened."

- ★ Contributed in a reserve role along the defensive line during the AFC Championship victory at Kansas City (1/20).

- ★ As a sophomore, he helped stabilize a young secondary that completed the regular season ranked 10th in the country in pass defense.
- ★ Earned first-team freshman All-America honors by The Sporting News and Rivals.com, and was also picked as the Pac 10's defensive freshman of the year by Sporting News.

- ★ Born with a nerve condition known as Erb's palsy, Clayborn does not have full use of his right arm. The condition did not hinder Clayborn from starring on the field at Iowa, becoming a first-round pick and racking up 30 career sacks.

  "I play the right side," Clayborn said. "That's where I've been playing for most of my career. It doesn't really affect me, besides in the weight room with doing some stuff. But on the field, it doesn't really affect me. I've learned to compensate when I have to, and I do what I've got to do to make the plays."

  In Week 13 of the 2018 season, Clayborn wore specially-designed cleats to raise awareness for the disease as part of the NFL's "My Cause, My Cleats" campaign.

- ★ Growing up as an undersized quarterback with a good arm and all kinds of athleticism, Julian Edelman had visions of being the next Doug Flutie.

Standout College QB to NFL Wide Receiver

Edelman began his college football career with a year at the College of San Mateo (Calif.) before transferring to Kent State where, as a senior, he completed 56 percent of his passes (153 of 275 passes for 1,820 yards) with 13 touchdowns. He was also the leading rusher, gaining 1,551 yards on 215 attempts (an average of 7.5 yards per carry) and scoring 13 touchdowns. His offensive numbers broke Kent State's single-season record for total offense set by Joshua Cribbs in 2003.

Said head coach Bill Belichick on the versatility of Edelman: "He played the quarterback position in college at Kent State and all the positions really that he's played in the NFL – covering kicks, returning kicks, slot receiver, outside receiver, slot defender – he didn't do any of those things in college. I think that really speaks to his versatility and how much he's grown as a player and how many things he's learned how to do that he really didn't have much experience with in college. I'd say that's pretty unusual, especially to be as competent in them as he is."

EXTRA POINTS

★ The Patriots were trailing the Atlanta Falcons, 21-3, at halftime of Super Bowl LI in Houston. During the break, Harmon helped inspire his teammates in the locker room by convincing them that they were going to orchestrate the greatest comeback in Super Bowl history.

"I knew, " Harmon said. "You've got Tom Brady, the Michael Jordan of football, and you've got the greatest defense this year, man. The team that – we gave up fifteen points (per game). It's a tale of two halves. But I'm trying to tell you, when this defense needed to lock in and get the ball back to the offense, we did it, and that's a championship defense."

FOURTH QUARTER PICKS

Throughout his six NFL seasons, Duron Harmon has shown a knack for notching late-game interceptions. Of his 14 career picks, 10 have come in the fourth quarter, with six of those occuring during the final two minutes of the second half.

★ James White and Cincinnati Bengals running back Giovani Bernard have been close friends for a long time. Gio lost his mother at a young age, and his father lost his business and eventually the family home when he was in high school. Their only option for shelter was a car. That's when White's parents intervened and the two running backs lived together for their senior year of high school.

"I consider [White] my brother. There was never a time that I didn't consider him that," Bernard told The Providence Journal. "His family did so much for me."

The Whites had a spare bedroom because their eldest son, Tyrone Jr., was away at college.

"He was pretty much like my brother. We treated him like family and still do," White said.

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by Raytheon offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to bring the Patriots story to life. It's incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery has undergone renovations over the last two years and houses all five Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those titles. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

HISTORY OF THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME

The Patriots Hall of Fame was established in 1991 as a way to honor the greatest players in franchise history. A selection committee of media and staff was formed to select players for induction and appropriately, John Hannah was the first player enshrined. Eight additional players were inducted from 1992-95. Andre Tippett (1999) and Bruce Armstrong (2001) rounded out the Patriots Hall of Fame's first 11 members. In 2007, the Patriots introduced a new method of selecting players for the team's hall of fame in advance of the opening of The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by Raytheon. Moving forward, one player will be enshrined in the Patriots Hall of Fame each year, with a nomination committee determining three finalists each spring and fans voting for the final choice through Patriots.com each spring.

SENIOR SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Patriots formed a senior selection committee to ensure that early era players are not overlooked in the voting process. The committee consists of veteran media and staff members who gather to discuss candidates who have been retired for at least 25 years to identify the player most deserving of Patriots Hall of Fame recognition.

CONTRIBUTORS

William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr. ★ Founder
Patriots Hall of Fame 2009

On the occasion of the Patriots' 50th anniversary season in 2009, one of Robert Kraft's first announcements was the induction of the team's founder, William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr., into the team's Hall of Fame. Sullivan became the first non-player to be inducted into The Hall. On Nov. 16, 1959, William H. Sullivan, Jr. was awarded the eighth and final charter franchise of the American Football League ... Sullivan, with nine other investors, sold non-voting public stock in the franchise to raise capital to help post the franchise fee of $25,000 ... In 1975, Sullivan purchased additional stock to become majority owner, and in 1976, he purchased all the remaining non-voting stock in the team ... In 1983, Schaefer Stadium was renamed Sullivan Stadium to honor Sullivan's contributions to the franchise ... Sullivan owned the Patriots through 1988, when he sold the franchise to Victor Kiam.

A 6-yard Danny Amendola touchdown reception along with a James White 2-point conversion made the score 28-20. Scott Zolak

Five years, two Super Bowl championships: it's been a great beginning to Bob Socci's career as the radio voice of the Patriots.

Socci returns for his sixth season in the booth as play-by-play broadcaster on 98.5 The Sports Hub and its 40-station network. He's won rave reviews for his enthusiasm and accuracy since taking the helm for the 2013 campaign. Before joining the Patriots, Bob served as the voice of the Naval Academy Midshipmen for 16 seasons, and called Triple A baseball, most recently for the Pawtucket Red Sox, for a decade.

Socci is joined in the booth by former Patriots quarterback Scott Zolak, who's entering his seventh season as action analyst. Prior to moving upstairs he spent a season with the legendary broadcast team of Gil Santos and Gino Cappelletti as a sideline reporter. Prior to that, he served six seasons as a co-host of "Patriots Preview" and "Patriots Postgame" on the Radio Network. He's currently heard daily as co-host of the Zolak and Bertrand Show on the Sports Hub, where his experience as a pro athlete and his boundless energy keep Boston listeners engaged and entertained all year long.

The gameday experience on the Network starts three hours before kickoff with "Patriots Preview," with hosts Marc Bertrand and Christopher Gasper. The co-host of the Sports Hub's midday show, Bertrand helmed the "Patriots Pregame Social" on Patriots.com for two seasons. A UMass grad, he won Associated Press awards for both his play-by-play and talk shows covering the Minutemen. Marc is also a frequent contributor to NBC Sports Boston. Marc is also a frequent contributor to NBC Sports Boston. Joining him this season on "Patriots Postgame" is Jim Murray of the Sports Hub's "Felger & Massarotti" show. Jim has also hosted the "Patriots Pregame Social" on Patriots.com for the last two seasons. He and Bertrand will take over right after the final whistle, breaking down the game, airing postgame press conferences and giving the fans a chance to react. Gasper is back for his 11th season on "Patriots Preview," his third as a full-fledged co-host. The Lynn Mass., native covered the Patriots exclusively for the Boston Globe for much of the past decade, and continues to offer his insights on all Boston sports as a columnist for the Globe and for Boston.com. Gasper also co-hosts the Saturday morning "Gasper & Murray" show on the Sports Hub.

The football season never ends on the Patriots flagship station, 98.5 The Sports Hub. From morning-after breakdowns with "Toucher and Rich," X's and O's with "Zolak and Bertrand," no-holds-barred opinions from "Felger and Massarotti," to the voice of the fans at night on the "Adam Jones Show," the Patriots are always front and center. One of the first sports franchises to broadcast their games on FM, the Patriots begin their 24th season of airing every block, tackle and kick in crystal-clear stereo. The Pats are entering their 10th season on The Sports Hub, where you'll also find the broadcasts of the New England Revolution, Boston Bruins and Boston Celtics.

2018 PATRIOTS CHEERLEADERS

The New England Patriots Cheerleaders and Pat Patriot Mascot look forward to another banner year in 2018. This year's squad looks to build on the success of previous seasons, including having been previously recognized as the No. 1 cheerleading squad in the NFL and Pat Patriot acknowledged as one of the top 10 most recognizable mascots by Forbes magazine.

The Patriots Cheerleaders have been featured in Muscle and Fitness Hers and Sports Illustrated. They have opened for, performed with or during the live shows of Toby Keith, Aerosmith, Florida Georgia Line, Jason Aldean, Dierks Bently, Hootie and the Blowfish and Blues Traveler. You can also find the Patriots Cheerleaders in the news, having been featured on Good Morning America, The Today Show, Access Hollywood, Entertainment Tonight, E! and Inside Edition.

The team has consistently been praised for its ability to harness and develop relationships with fans and aspiring cheerleaders through their interactive website and very popular social media platforms. Supporting the efforts of charitable organizations throughout New England, the cheerleaders are able to use their celebrity status to make a difference in the community. In addition to their philanthropic efforts, the squad makes about 1,000 individual public appearances annually for businesses and corporations, spreading cheer to fans at a variety of events throughout New England and across the country. Those bookings include trade shows, grand openings, parades, autograph sessions and Monday Night Football promotions, to name a few.

The New England Patriots Cheerleaders proudly maintain a well-established Junior Cheerleader program, where youths ages 7-17 attend a clinic with the squad, perform on the Gillette Stadium field, and make community appearances with the Patriots Cheerleaders throughout the season in conjunction with the squad's community relations efforts.

While the Patriots Cheerleaders have become accustomed to entertaining thousands of Patriots fans from the sidelines, members of the squad have traveled overseas on goodwill missions to entertain thousands of patriots on the front lines. The Patriots Cheerleaders have performed in over two dozen combat areas and have visited more than 25 countries. In addition to their goodwill military missions and appearances throughout the United States, the squad has entertained and appeared at many high-profile events, including performances in Super Bowls, Pro Bowls, an American Bowl in Mexico City, Patriots games in London in 2009 and 2012, and Mexico City again in 2017.

In an effort to increase awareness and interest in the NFL and the New England Patriots, the Patriots Cheerleaders have made seven trips to China. The cheerleaders traveled to Hong Kong, Guangzhou, Beijing and Shanghai as part of the NFL Home Field event, participating in interactive events, teaching a youth clinic and bringing the glamour and excitement of American football games to China.

A spring audition drew approximately 400 applicants to compete for the opportunity to join the 2018 New England Patriots Cheerleading squad. Thirty-four talented, accomplished and beautiful women earned the honor, including 21 returning veterans and 13 rookies. The squad is populated with a wide range of students and professionals, including two physical therapists, an electrical engineer, a musician and a dental hygienist. Following their appointment to the squad, the cheerleaders traveled to St. Maarten to shoot their annual calendar and made-for-TV special.

This year's squad will continue to serve not only as day-of-game entertainers, but also as Patriots ambassadors throughout New England and around the world. Patriots Cheerleaders and the Pat Patriot Mascot appearances make functions more memorable for everyone. For more information on booking the Patriots Cheerleaders or Pat Patriot Mascot, please contact Cheerleader Director, Tracy Sormanti, by e-mail at cheerleaders@patriots.com.

THE PATRIOTS AND THE COMMUNITY

A WINNING TEAM

The New England Patriots Foundation is the 501(c)(3) non-profit entity created by Robert Kraft to support charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout New England. This support comes in the form of direct grants, donations of signed memorabilia to a variety of charitable causes and from Patriots players who offer their direct support by appearing at charity functions throughout the year.

Kraft established the New England Patriots Foundation when he purchased the team in 1994 as a way for the organization to give back to the communities it calls home. The Foundation's primary goal is to support programs that aid the youth and families of New England while underscoring the Kraft family's deep commitment to philanthropic activities in the community.

Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft cuts the ceremonial ribbon to officially open CareZone, a mobile health van at The Kraft Center for Community Health at Massachusetts General Hospital. The van is designed to more efficiently engage individuals struggling with addition and complex health conditions.

For the past 24 years, the Kraft family and the Foundation have assisted programs that foster cultural diversity, education, family and health. The Foundation has also taken a special interest in youth programs that encourage education, creativity and development of character.

In 2017, current and former Patriots players and coaches made more than 500 appearances in New England communities. Wives and girlfriends of Patriots players and coaches are also actively involved in community initiatives throughout the year. The Kraft family and the Foundation will continue to expand its reach to help support more children and families across New England in the years to come. NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS FOUNDATION FUNDRAISING EFFORTS

Patriots Premiere and Ron Burton Community Service Award

The New England Patriots Premiere event is held on the field at Gillette Stadium to ring in the new season and raise funds for the Patriots Foundation. Patriots players and coaches come together to mingle with fans on the big night, which includes dinner, live and silent auctions and the presentation of the Ron Burton Community Service Award. The Burton Award honors the Patriots player who most embodies the qualities of Burton, the first player drafted by the team who was known for his commitment to the community and helping others. Previous winners include Joe Andruzzi (2003), Troy Brown (2004), Matt Light (2005), Jarvis Green (2006), Ty Warren (2007), Larry Izzo (2008), Kevin Faulk (2009), Vince Wilfork (2010), Jerod Mayo (2011), Zoltan Mesko (2012), Matthew Slater (2013), Devin McCourty (2014), Nate Solder (2015), Rob Gronkowski (2016) and Jordan Richards (2017).

Robert Kraft, JoAnn Burton and previous Ron Burton Community Service Award recipients present the 2017 award to Jordan Richards.

Patriots Fantasy Camp

Each year, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation provide fans with exclusive access to their favorite team during a unique charitable event. Participants experience a day in the life of a Patriot as they go toe-to-toe with the entire roster on the field of Gillette Stadium. They also receive instructions from the Patriots coaching staff, exclusive behind the scenes tours of the locker room, weight room and more. All proceeds from this charitable event benefit the Foundation.

The Patriots running backs led participants through offensive skill stations at the annual Patriots Fantasy Camp.

Patriots License Plates

The Patriots are pleased to offer specialty license plates in Massachusetts and Rhode Island to benefit the Patriots Foundation. This fall, fans in New Hampshire will also have the opportunity to purchase a Patriots decal sticker for their license plates. Proceeds raised from the license plate program are funneled directly back to the states in which the plates are issued. Fans can order their Patriots license plates and decal stickers by visiting patriots.com/community.

Ultimate Road Trip Raffle

For $10, Patriots fans can enter for a chance to travel with the team to a 2018 road game of their choice. The grand prize winner will receive two tickets to the game, plus VIP pregame field passes, seats on the team plane, a room at the team hotel and more. Three additional prizes will be awarded and include tickets to a Patriots home game and autographed memorabilia. All proceeds will benefit the New England Patriots Foundation. Please visit www.patriots.com/community to learn more.

Patriots Boston Marathon Team

For the past 11 years, the Patriots have fielded a team to run the historic Boston Marathon to raise funds for the Patriots Foundation. Since its inception, the marathon team has raised more than two million dollars for the Myra Kraft Community MVP Awards and the Celebrate Volunteerism initiative. Visit www.patriots.com/community to learn more.

Twenty-two individuals from across the country trained for more than five months to run the historic Boston Marathon. Despite the horrendous weather, every member of the Patriots team finished the race, while collectively raising more than $230,000 for the Patriots Foundation.

Patriots Platelet Pedalers

The Patriots Platelet Pedalers ride in the Pan Massachusetts Challenge, a weekend-long charity bicycle ride to benefit Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. Started in 1980, the Pan-Mass Challenge is the largest charity bicycling event in the country, raising more than $500 million for cancer research and treatment. The Patriots Platelet Pedalers pedal together to fundraise for Dana-Farber, with the money earmarked for Dr. Ken Anderson, the Kraft Family Professor of Medicine at Harvard Medical School and Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, to support his multiple myeloma research and development of novel therapies. More than 100 riders train each year to be part of the Pedalers team and together they have raised more than eight million dollars since 2008.

FOUNDATION EVENTS AND PROGRAMS

Each November, the Kraft family is joined by more than a dozen current and former Patriots players to deliver holiday baskets filled with Thanksgiving meals to families in need.

Thanksgiving-in-a-Basket

For 24 years, the Kraft family has been joined by dozens of Patriots players and alumni at the Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries headquarters in Boston to assist in distributing more than 220 holiday baskets filled with turkeys and all of the trimmings to local families in need. The recipients of the baskets include families with children who participated in Goodwill's youth programs, as well as individuals who were enrolled or had recently graduated from Goodwill's job training program.

New England Patriots Foundation Children's Holiday Party

For more than 20 years, the Patriots have treated hundreds of children from Salvation Army centers throughout Massachusetts and Rhode Island to a night of holiday festivities. Patriots players attend a party at Gillette Stadium and participate in a number of activities including "Build-A-Tree," a game in which the children work in teams to decorate Patriots players in bows, garland and ornaments to resemble a Christmas tree. The children also receive autographs from players and cheerleaders, holiday gifts and a special visit from Santa Claus.

More than 250 children in need have the opportunity to decorate Patriots players like snowmen during the annual Children's Holiday Party.

Patriots Gifts from the Gridiron

Dozens of current and former Patriots players were at Bass Pro Shops at Patriot Place last year for the eighth annual "Gifts from the Gridiron" event to treat 50 children from local homeless shelter programs to a night of holiday shopping. Armed with $400 gift cards, the kids selected winter coats, hats and gloves, along with gifts for loved ones. The players helped them budget their money, find the items they were looking for, posed for photos with Santa and helped the kids wrap presents. The event was a joint effort between Bass Pro Shops, the New England Patriots Foundation, the New England Patriots Alumni Club and Patriots defensive back Devin McCourty.

Salute to Service

The Kraft family and the Patriots have always had a deep appreciation for the military. Through the Salute to Service campaign, the Patriots organization is dedicated to recognizing and thanking those who have served and those who continue to serve our country. At each home game, five active duty military members lead the Patriots out onto the field and receive a standing salute from their VIP seating in the Row of Honor. Current and former Patriots players have also hosted football clinics at military bases, visited veterans hospitals, taken part in deployment ceremonies, helped build homes for wounded veterans and much more.

Robert Kraft and the New England Patriots Foundation invite more than 50 active duty military members to attend Patriots training camp as their special guests.

Patriots players, including defensive lineman Trey Flowers, visit schools across New England to read to children and to promote the importance of education.

Education and Literacy

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation are dedicated to promoting the importance of education to youth across the region. Throughout the year, current and former Patriots players visit community centers and schools all around New England to speak to students about the importance of reading. Every March, current and former players celebrate Dr. Seuss' birthday and Read Across America week by visiting schools and reading to students. The foundation also hosts an annual summer reading blitz, called Read Between the Lines, encouraging students to read for at least 1,000 minutes during summer vacation.

Youth Football

The New England Patriots Foundation is committed to providing opportunities for youth to play the game of football. Each year, the Foundation teams with the New England Patriots Alumni Club to host more than 25 Football for You clinics all across New England. These free, one-day clinics are led by Patriots alumni who teach the fundamentals of football to youth ages 9 to 14. The Foundation has also donated millions of dollars to support local high school programs through the Coach of the Week and NFL field grant programs. The Foundation is actively involved in flag football leagues across the region and plays host to the Special Olympics Flag Football and Cheerleading Championships at Gillette Stadium. Through these programs, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation continue to advocate for the health and safety of the game while also providing opportunities for youth to participate.

Myra Kraft COMMUNITY MVP AWARDS

PATRIOTS FOUNDATION • CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM

Myra Kraft Community MVP Awards

Each year, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation recognizes members of the New England community for their volunteer efforts at nonprofit organizations across the region. Through the Myra Kraft Community MVP Awards, volunteers are recognized for their leadership, dedication and commitment to bettering their communities. Each recipient is invited to a special luncheon at Gillette Stadium where they receive their award as well as a grant for the nonprofit organization that they represent. This past year, $275,000 in grants were provided to 26 nonprofit organizations all across New England. Patricia Thompson Leavitt of Buxton, Maine was the 2018 grand prize winner and the Leavitt's Mill Free Health Clinic received a $25,000 grant in honor of her volunteer efforts.

Robert Kraft, Josh Kraft and Andre Tippett congratulated the 2018 Myra Kraft Community MVP winners during a special awards ceremony this past June.

Robert Kraft and Massachusetts Attorney General Maura Healey hosted a Game Change summit at Gillette Stadium and helped to lead discussions with middle and high school students about domestic violence prevention.

Game Change: The Patriots Anti-Violence Partnership

In September of 2015, Robert Kraft teamed with Massachusetts Attorney General Maura Healey to launch a new program called Game Change: The Patriots Anti-Violence Partnership. This innovative program is designed to educate high school students about violence prevention. In 2015-16, the program provides training to students, faculty and coaches at 90 high schools across the state. The schools received training from Mentors in Violence Prevention (MVP), a nationwide leader in addressing violence prevention run by the Center for Sport in Society at Northeastern University. MVP uses a sports-themed curriculum and employs collegiate athletes and former professional athletes as trainers.

Over the past two years, 100 middle and high schools received more in-depth, on-site training for their students. The program also provides funding to support that work over the long-term to six sexual assault and domestic violence service providers. These peer leaders, school staff, and prevention educators from a local sexual assault and domestic violence provider are working together to incorporate the MVP curriculum into classes, clubs and through student led trainings and presentations. Through this program, thousands of middle and high school students have learned how to recognize and approach different signs of violence.

Kraft Family Blood Donor Center

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation have a longstanding commitment to supporting healthcare initiatives across the region. Through their efforts, they created the Kraft Family Blood Donor Center at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and Brigham and Women's Hospital to help collect blood and platelet donations. Current and former Patriots players often visit the center to thank donors and to offer their support to patients. The Kraft Family Blood Donor Center also has a Blood Mobile travels across New England to collect donations. Several times each year the Blood Mobile makes a stop at Patriot Place where donors have an opportunity to meet special guests including former players, Patriots cheerleaders and mascot Pat Patriot.

Current and former Patriots players often visit the Kraft Family Blood Donor Center to thank donors and offer their support to patients. Some current and former players, including safety Jordan Richards, also make donations to support the cause.

Celebrate Volunteerism

Celebrate Volunteerism is an initiative that aims to highlight volunteerism by teaming with nonprofits, educating people about the need for volunteering, increasing awareness for volunteer opportunities, honoring deserving volunteers and encouraging others to get involved in their local communities. Each week throughout the season, the Kraft family and New England Patriots Foundation recognize an individual that has gone above and beyond to give back to their community with the Patriots Difference Maker of the Week award. All of the honorees are then invited to the Patriots final regular season home game to take part in a special ceremony.

Robert Kraft recognized the 2017 Patriots Difference Makers of the Week during a special halftime ceremony last December.

Patriots players, including Rob Gronkowski, visit schools and community centers throughout the year to lead exercise and fitness stations and to promote the importance of living a healthy lifestyle.

Play 60

The Patriots encourage fans of all ages to be active for at least 60 minutes a day as part of the NFL's Play 60 initiative. The Patriots have teamed with the New England Dairy Council and their Fuel Up to Play 60 program which aims to tackle childhood obesity by implementing healthy habit programming in schools, after-school programs, community centers and by providing in-home resources to Patriots fans around the globe. Current and former Patriots players, cheerleaders and mascot, Pat Patriot, continue to support the initiative and can often be found delivering the Play 60 message to youth across New England.

Crucial Catch: Intercept Cancer

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation have a longstanding commitment to supporting healthcare initiatives across the globe. Over the years, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation have made donations in support of cancer research in underserved communities, spread awareness of early detection each year at an October home game, hosted a day of pampering for cancer survivors and visited hospitals to show their support for breast cancer patients and their families. In 2017, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation embraced the "Crucial Catch: Intercept Cancer" campaign to help educate fans about a wide variety of cancers. In the years to come, the foundation will continue to promote the importance of early detection and research and offer their support to families battling cancer.

Patriots quarterback Tom Brady takes a selfie with a breast cancer survivor during the annual Patriots day of pampering.

Every fall, Robert Kraft joins members of the Patriots Women's Association to help prepare and serve meals to women experiencing homelessness at the Women's Lunch Place in Boston.

Tom Brady and Rob Gronkowski took part in a Make-A-Wish visit to Gillette Stadium. Bill Belichick and the entire team also joined them to welcome the special guests. The visits were made possible by Make-A-Wish board member and President of the Kraft Group-International Dan Kraft.
