

Suggested Reading:

Title	Author	Why You Should Read It	ISBN	In Fourth Library?
Presbyterianism	Sean Michael Lucas	At under 130 pages, this little book provides a wonderful, short explanation of Presbyterianism and how it is biblical	9798887790633	No
On Being Presbyterian: Our Beliefs, Practices, and Stories	Sean Michael Lucas	A comprehensive and non-technical explanation of Presbyterianism. This book has been used at Fourth for Officer's Training in the past.	9781596380196	Yes
Reformed and Evangelical Across Four Centuries: The Presbyterian Story in America	Nathan Feldmeth, Donald Fortson, Garth Rosell, Kenneth Stewart, George Marsden	A relatively new history of Presbyterianism in America that is both broad and deep.	9780802873408	Yes
The Church of Christ	James Bannerman	This is a very big book, but it remains the single most comprehensive volume ever written on Presbyterianism and the Presbyterian doctrine of the church.	9781848715028	No
Crisis of Confidence	Carl Trueman	Have you ever wondered why Fourth cares so much about being confessional? Why we regard the Westminster Confession so highly? This book will answer those questions for you in less than 190 pages.	9781433590016	No  (An earlier edition of this book called The Creedal Imperative is in the library)
Confessing the Faith: A Reader's Guide to the Westminster Confession of Faith	Chad Van Dixhoorn	In Fourth's Presbyterian structure, the pastors and elders take a vow to "uphold the system of doctrine" contained within the Westminster Standards. This popular level book explains that system of doctrine.	9781848714045	Yes