Psalm 33:1–5, 18–22

Ash Grove

With joy let us sing to the LORD, all you righteous,
For fitting it is that the upright give praise.
And skillfully praise him with harp and with lyre;
Make music to God, a new song to him raise.
For upright and true is the word God has spoken;
The works of the LORD his great faithfulness prove.
And he loves true righteousness, justice, and judgment;
The ends of the earth show the LORD's steadfast love.
Behold, the LORD's eye is upon all who trust him,
Who hope in his love, and, in awe, him revere.
They trust that from death he will rescue and save them,
And keep them all living when famine comes near.
The LORD we await is our help and protection,
Our heart is glad, trusting in his holy name.
O LORD, let your covenant love be upon us,
As we hold to you and the hope that we claim.

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord God, eternal and almighty Father: We acknowledge before your holy majesty that we are poor sinners, conceived and born in guilt and corruption, prone to do evil, unable of our own power to do good. Because of our sin, we endlessly violate your holy commandments. But, O Lord, with heartfelt sorrow we repent and turn away from all our offenses. Have compassion on us, most gracious God, Father of mercies, for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. And in removing our guilt also grant us daily increase of the grace of your Holy Spirit and produce in us the fruits of holiness and of righteousness pleasing in your sight. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

“O How I Love Jesus”

O How I Love Jesus

There is a name I love to hear, I love to sing its worth;
It sounds like music in my ear, the sweetest name on earth.

*O how I love Jesus, O how I love Jesus,
O how I love Jesus because he first loved me!*

It tells me of a Savior's love, who died to set me free;
It tells me of his precious blood, the sinner's perfect plea.

It tells of One whose loving heart can feel my deepest woe,
Who in my sorrow bears a part that none can bear below.

Jesus, the name I love so well, the name I love to hear;
No saints on earth its worth can tell, no heart conceive how dear.

“My Savior’s Love (What Tongue Could Tell)”

K. Getty, M. Boswell, M. Papa

What tongue could tell my Savior’s love, what song of angels could describe?
Could endless praises be enough to echo full his sacrifice?
How worthy is the Lamb of God beyond all might or skill or pen;
Still we confess and strain towards such myst’ry and magnificence.

*My Savior’s love, my Savior’s love,
What could compare, what tongue could tell my Savior’s love?*

What tune could carry on its wings the beauty of that final breath?
What words dare paint the awesome scene when God stood in the stead of man,
When Jesus Christ the radiant One took on the shadows of our hate,
Then rose again just as the sun with light and pow’r in fullest grace?

And when in death this tongue is stilled, my song of life has reached the end,
Though as a flower I may wilt, this everlasting truth will stand:
No death or life could separate me from the love of Christ my Lord.
This hope is sure from age to age, my song will be forevermore

CELEBRATION OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD’S SUPPER

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH—APOSTLES’ CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

“There Is a Fountain”

Fountain

There is a fountain filled with blood drawn from Immanuel’s veins,
And sinners plunged beneath that flood lose all their guilty stains:
Lose all their guilty stains, lose all their guilty stains;
And sinners plunged beneath that flood lose all their guilty stains.

The dying thief rejoiced to see that fountain in his day,
And there may I, though vile as he, wash all my sins away:
Wash all my sins away, wash all my sins away;
And there may I, though vile as he, wash all my sins away.
