Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

Luke's account of the feeding of the five thousand takes place between two great questions. In Luke 9:9, Herod asks about Jesus, "Who is this about whom I hear?" In Luke 9:18, Jesus asks, "Who do the crowds say I am?"

In the feeding of five thousand, Jesus shows the Twelve something about who he is.

Jesus is the one who...

1. Makes impossible needs glorious opportunities
2. Turns insufficient resources into a great surplus
3. Uses skeptical saints to perform mighty acts

Application:

1. What are the needs that you see around you?
2. Are you willing to give God your worst and least gifts?
3. Do you know who Jesus is?
