Chapter 4

Special Revelation

What is our primary source for special revelation? Where do we find it?

Epistemology, a subdivision of philosophy, is the science of _____.

How was Israel to test its prophets to be sure they were from God? Three ways:

The first test was a _____

The second test of a true prophet in the Old Testament was the presence of _____.

The third test of a true prophet was _____; in other words, did the things that the prophets announced come to pass?

Through both the prophets of the Old Testament and the _____ of the New Testament, we have been given a written record of special revelation.

The author of Hebrews points out another dimension of special revelation, the supreme revelation, which is the _____ Word.

God, who at various times and in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets,² has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds;³ who being the brightness of His glory and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, (Hebrews 1:1-3 NKJ)
