

Practical Religion

Chapter 21 / Eternity

while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal. (2 Corinthians 4:18 NKJ)

Can we accurately measure eternity? Are we able to fully understand it with our minds?

What tool must we always have in our hands if we are going to have any accurate understanding of eternity at all?

I. We live in a world _____

What aspect of this is comforting to true Christians?

II. We are all going to a world where everything is _____

The _____ of those who are saved is eternal.

The _____ of those who are finally lost is eternal.

Why should we hold fast to these two great truths, that the happiness of the saved is eternal and the misery of those lost is eternal?

(a)

(b)

(c)

III. Our state in the unseen world of eternity _____

There is no greater delusion than the common idea that it is possible to _____
_____, and yet rise again _____;

Remember:

Make good use of _____

What should we never be careless about?

What should we remember when Satan tempts or sinners try to entice?

IV. Our Great Friend

How important is Jesus Christ when we consider eternity?

Food for thought

(1) How are you using your time?

(2) Where shall you be in eternity?

(3) Would you be safe for time and eternity?

(4) Would you be happy?