The Word of God

"So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live."

Romans 8:12-13

Our Lord's Day
January 1, 2023

Welcome/Announcements/Prayer Requests Pastor Randy Foster

Call to Worship

From Psalm 34

I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
In my soul I will boast in the LORD; may the humble of heart hear and be glad.

Come let us praise the LORD and exalt his name together!
The Lord is good and his love endures forever.

Call to Confession

Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good! Blessed is the one who takes refuge in him! Those who fear the Lord lack no good thing.

Prayer of Confession

From Psalm 34

Father God, it is your desire that we hate evil and seek to do good. Who among us does not seek to live and see many good days? Father give us the desire and strength to turn away from the evil that we do. Give us hearts that seek peace and the will to pursue it. Father we know that your eyes look toward the righteous and that your ears are sympathetic to the cry of your children. May we believe your promise that when those that serve the Lord cry for help, you hear those cries and deliver them out of all their troubles. Thank you for always being ever near to our broken hearts and bringing salvation to our crushed spirits. Many are the afflictions of your children, but we have faith in your Word that you will deliver us out of them all. Thank you Father that eternity will see the life of your own redeemed and that none who take refuge in you will be lost. Give us faith to remember that due to the sacrifice of Jesus Christ your Son you will not forget your own, in whose name we pray. Amen

Assurance of Pardon

There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

Invitation and Words of Institution

God meets us in the sacraments, holy acts in which his deeds elicit our response. In the supper our Lord offers the bread and cup to believers to guarantee our share in his death and resurrection, and to unite us to him and to each other.

We take this food gladly, announcing as we eat that Jesus is our life and that he shall come again to call us to the Supper of the Lamb.

Thanksgiving of Praise

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Remembrance

We shall do as our Lord commands. We proclaim that our Lord Jesus was sent by the Father into the world, that he took upon himself our flesh and blood, and bore the wrath of God against our sin. We confess that he was condemned to die that we might be pardoned and suffered death that we might live. We proclaim that he is risen to make us right with God and that he shall come again in the glory of his new creation. This we do now and until he comes again.

Therefore we proclaim our faith as signed and sealed in this sacrament:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus:

Dying, you destroyed our death; rising, you restored our life. Lord Jesus, come in glory.

According to his commandment:

We remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory.

Christ is the bread of life:

When we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim your death, Lord Jesus, until you come in glory.

Prayer/Lord's Prayer

Preparation

The bread that we break is a sharing in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body, for we all share the same loaf.

The cup for which we give thanks is a sharing in the blood of Christ.

The cup that we drink is our participation in the blood of Christ.
