Short-Term Outreach, Relief & Missions

From the Office of the Short-Term Missions Coordinator

Vol. 4, Issue 2

February 18, 2015

Be to me a rock of refuge ... Psalm 71:3 (ESV)

What's New?

What's new with OPC Short-Term Missions?

A new design for our website (www.OPCSTM.org) better corresponds to the design of our mother website at www.OPC.org!

We now have an OPC Disaster Response logo! We hope that the display of this logo (on team members' shirts or vehicles, for example) will communicate that the OPC's labors in the aftermath of a disaster are carried out in obedience to Christ who demonstrated the ultimate act of compassion and mercy on the cross, that the lost might find their refuge in Him. Check out the logo at our Facebook page (below)!

A logo for OPC Short-Term Missions is also in the works!

We are using a new carrier to distribute the full email version of the S.T.O.R.M. Report, in hopes of improving its delivery rate! Contact us (below) to sign up!

"Missionaries" – Not Just "Volunteers"

Excerpt from a thank you note from the Nozomi Center in Japan, where the work of recovery and outreach continues following the Tsunami of 2011:

"People of Yamamoto and we, Nozomi staff, were greatly encouraged by the warmth and the power of the Holy Spirit that the team members brought with them each time We consider our brothers and sisters in Christ from OPC mission teams "missionaries" instead of just "volunteers" because of their dedicated service to bring Gospel to the town of Yamamoto by loving the locals in a tangible way."
