Reports From the Field

*Sing to him, sing praises to him;
tell of all his wondrous works. Ps. 105:2 (ESV)*

We are starting to receive reports from the field as summer short-term missions get underway! Below are updates from Quebec, Uruguay, and the Jersey Shore! Thank you for keeping short-term missions in your prayers, and stay tuned for further reports!

English for Kids Bible Camps in Quebec (June-July)

Rev. Ben Westerveld reports: Four camps taking place in two locations over a 3-week period are underway! Teams including volunteers from OP churches in Pennsylvania, Arizona, Kentucky, California, and the Presbytery of New York and New England are presenting the themes of Christ the King, The Birth of Jesus Christ, and Pilgrim's Progress. Pray that the kids will learn, understand, and confess that the man Jesus is also the very Son of God, and for new families to join God's kingdom.

VBS and Local Evangelism in Uruguay (July 5-7)

Rev. Markus Jeromin reports: A team of nine Americans (3 of whom speak Spanish) is helping the OP Uruguay Mission present a VBS at its new church plant, and conduct questionnaire evangelism in the local community. They are extremely grateful for the team's help and request prayer for a good turn out to the VBS, responsiveness to their evangelism efforts, and new souls to be added to Christ's worship and church.

Boardwalk Chapel, Wildwood, NJ (June-Sept. 2016)

From the Chapel's Facebook page: "Last night marked our second 'midnight dinner' for our friends who work along the boardwalk. The Lord drew about 17 people to come by the Chapel to eat, laugh, and talk with us, most of them from Egypt, Russia, or local to the New Jersey area. As we made new friends or got to better know old ones, Gospel conversations flourished. Several of them gladly took Russian or Arabic New Testaments and various tracts. Please pray that the Lord would continue to deepen our friendships with these friends, and stir their hearts by His Spirit to show them their need for Jesus."
