Preparing for STM Service

Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. Col. 3:2 (ESV)

The slides from my STM training presentation entitled, "The Role of STMs in OPC Missions," which focuses on spiritual and physical preparation as well as planning for important post-trip reflections and communications, are now available for your use at OPCSTM.org under "General Info" - click on "STM Preparation."

I also recommend the following article by Daniel Rickett as a means of STM preparation. In Short-Term Mission Partnerships: Lessons from Paul and the Philippians, Rickett concludes that "Paul's relationship with the church of Philippi calls for a different paradigm of short-term mission:

- It changes our starting position from being givers to first being friends.
- It changes our orientation from being teachers and service providers to being companions in the gospel.
- It changes our methods from doing for others to accompanying others in living like citizens of heaven on earth.
- It changes the impression we leave from being tourists to being fellow citizens in the struggle to act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with God (Micah 6:8)."

While We Worked on the Building, God Worked in our Hearts

by Patrick Lewis, Harvest OPC, Wyoming, MI

"Team One's mission trip to Yamamoto-cho, Miyagi, Japan, to work on the Nozomi Center proved to be a success and blessing for all. While we worked on the Nozomi Center building, God worked in our hearts. It was impactful to see and meet those who come and use the center on a weekly basis, which reiterated and demonstrated the importance of what we were there to do . . ."
