WOMEN'S RETREAT

MARCH 6-8, 2020

WHAT TO EXPECT

- Fun, fellowship, & relaxation
- Spiritual growth through speaker sessions & small group discussions

RETREAT LOCATION:

Kenbrook Bible Camp

We'll meet in Woodland Lodge for speaker sessions and meals. See directions on back of brochure.

WHAT TO BRING

- Bible and notebook
- Drink or snack to share.
- Casual, comfortable clothes (Linens and towels provided).

INFORMATION FOR MOMS OF INFANTS:

Because the retreat is designed to be a time to relax and focus on your personal growth, please only bring with you infants who are still nursing. If requested, we will offer childcare during the speaking sessions.

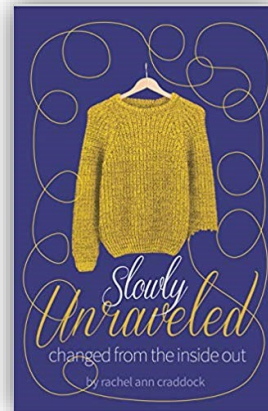

SPEAKER: RACHEL CRADDOCK

♦ Regional Advisor of Women's Ministry to MidAmerica for the PCA.

♦ Author of Slowly Unraveled: Changed from the Inside Out.

Rachel's goal is to encourage women to practically apply the gospel and grow their relationship with the God who unravels the old to make us new through the blood of Jesus. She will share this topic in five sessions throughout the weekend

Rachel lives with her husband Michael and their four children in Mason, Ohio, where Michael is the lead pastor at North Cincinnati Community Church.
