

Good Morning! We're glad to have you with us at Trinity Presbyterian Church today. As you wait for the service to begin, ask the Holy Spirit to prepare your heart for worship; during the service, humble yourself to receive His Word; after the service, go forth to share His Word with others with great joy!

We are asking those attending the inside service at Trinity to refrain from singing out loud, and to instead listen and meditate on the lyrics as they're being sung in a pre-recording of each hymn. Those outside the building or worshipping from home are welcome and encouraged to sing out loud.

A special 'thank-you' to the Skinner family for their help today in leading the singing.

God's Word Directs Our Life & Worship

Psalm 119:137-144

Righteous are you, O LORD, and right are your rules. You have appointed your testimonies in righteousness and in all faithfulness. My zeal consumes me, because my foes forget your words. Your promise is well tried, and your servant loves it. I am small and despised, yet I do not forget your precepts. Your righteousness is righteous forever, and your law is true. Trouble and anguish have found me out, but your commandments are my delight. Your testimonies are righteous forever; give me understanding that I may live.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.*

New City Catechism* Q & A #39

Q. With what attitude should we pray?

A: With love, perseverance, and gratefulness; in humble submission to God’s will, knowing that, for the sake of Christ, He always hears our prayers.

*Published by The Gospel Coalition and Crossway. Free copies are available on the table near the office door in the narthex. We will be using this catechism as a part of our worship service until the end of 2020. (If you’re unable to attend in-person and would like a copy, call the church office, and we would be happy to send one to you).

Facing Up to Our Sin Before God

God Instructs His People in His Standards

2 Corinthians 9:6-7

The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

God’s People Respond by Confession of Sin

God Assures His People of His Grace in Christ

2 Corinthians 9:10-12

He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God. For the ministry of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God.

Offering Our Prayers and Ourselves to God

Anthem

Come Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy
 Louann Zinsmeister, piano

arr. Mary McDonald

Lyrics to meditate upon while music is played:

*Come ye sinners, poor and needy, Bruised and broken by the fall;
 Jesus ready stands to save you. Full of pardoning love for all.
 He is able, He is able, He is willing, doubt no more;
 He is able, He is able, He is willing, doubt no more.*

*Let not conscience make you linger, Nor of fitness fondly dream;
 All that He requires of sinners, is to turn and trust in Him.
 He will save you. He will save you, 'Tis the gospel's constant theme.
 He will save you, He will save you, 'Tis the gospel's constant theme.*

*Lo! th'incarnate God, ascended, Pleads the merit of His blood.
Venture on Him, venture wholly Let no other trust intrude;
None but Jesus, none but Jesus Can do helpless sinners good.
None but Jesus, none but Jesus Can do helpless sinners good.*

God's People Respond with Thanksgiving & Petitions

Morning Prayer and The Lord's Prayer

Matthew 6:9B-13 (KJV) (ALT.)

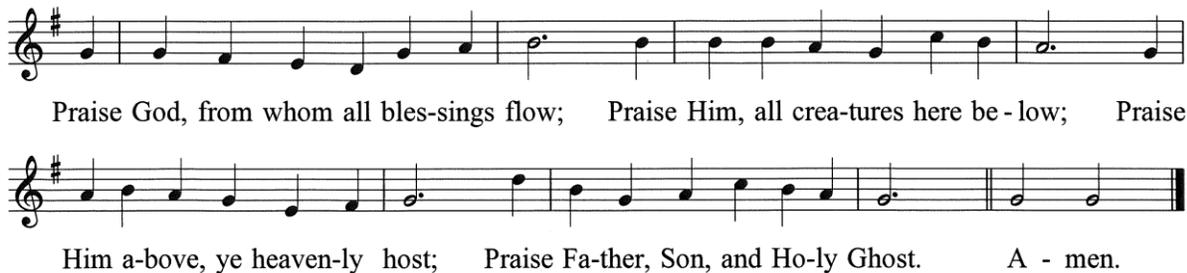

"Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil." For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Listening to God's Word

God Speaks to His People Through His Word

*Scripture Reading:

Acts 4:32 – 5:16

³² Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common.³³ And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.³⁴ There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold³⁵ and laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.³⁶ Thus Joseph, who was also called by the apostles Barnabas (which means son of encouragement), a Levite, a native of Cyprus,³⁷ sold a field that belonged to him and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet. ¹ But a man named Ananias, with his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property,² and with his wife's knowledge he kept back for himself some of the proceeds and brought only a part of it and laid it at the apostles' feet.³ But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back for yourself part of the proceeds of the land?⁴ While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not at your disposal? Why is it that you have contrived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to man but to God."⁵ When Ananias heard these words, he fell down and breathed his last. And great fear came upon all who heard of it.⁶ The young men rose and wrapped him up and carried him out and buried him.⁷ After an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.⁸ And Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." And she said, "Yes, for so much."⁹ But Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.”¹⁰ Immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last. When the young men came in they found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.¹¹ And great fear came upon the whole church and upon all who heard of these things. Now many signs and wonders were regularly done among the people by the hands of the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon’s Portico.¹³ None of the rest dared join them, but the people held them in high esteem.¹⁴ And more than ever believers were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women,¹⁵ so that they even carried out the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, that as Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on some of them.¹⁶ The people also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

DISCOVERING YOUR DIVINE DESIGN (September 13 through October 4, 2020)

The Lord has made each one of us wonderfully unique in our gifts, personality, talents, and ministry passions. Through His creative hand and ordained influences in our lives, the Lord has molded and now continually shapes us to fulfill His purposes in and through us—the purposes for which He sent each of us into the world.

We will continue to explore who we are and prayerfully discern where the Lord is calling each of us to engage in His ongoing work inside and outside the church—to both strengthen the body and reach those who do not yet know Him.

In all of this, we'll find that as we function in line with our gifts, talents, personality, and ministry passions, we will feel energized (rather than drained)—and consequently, both we and the church will flourish and grow, as the Lord works increasingly, powerfully in and through us.

So, come join us, led by Pastor Craig, as we explore and discover our unique gifts, personality, talents, and passions, and how that gives us individual and collective insights into where and how the Lord is calling us—as individual members and as a church—to engage in His ongoing mission to build His kingdom—around the corner and around the world.

Library News: You are invited to visit the cart outside the library across from the restrooms, and help yourself to free books! Most of these books are extra copies of ones that are on our shelves. Enjoy!

Pursuing Membership at Trinity

Are you interested in learning more about becoming a member of Trinity?

The Session of Trinity Presbyterian Church believes it is a Biblical Principle that Christians should formally affiliate themselves with a local congregation. At Trinity this is done through becoming a “communing member” of our church.

Each Spring and Fall the Session provides opportunities for people to explore becoming a member. There is also a “communicant’s class” at the beginning of each calendar year to help prepare young people to join the church.

This fall’s class to introduce Trinity to potential new members will be held on Friday, October 2nd from 6-9pm (dinner provided), and Saturday, October 3rd from 9am-12noon. Potential new members will: hear a summary of the Gospel that Trinity proclaims; be introduced to our church’s beliefs and government; review the questions that must be answered in the affirmative in order to become a member; meet the Pastors and other church officers; learn about our Missions program and various other opportunities to serve; receive books and booklets to introduce you to Trinity’s beliefs; and much more.

This class will be led by Pastor Mike Wolcott, and is for all older teenagers and adults interested in membership. Taking this class does not obligate you to join the church. If you are interested in attending, please contact the church office 717-545-4271.
