Welcome to Trinity Presbyterian Church

We are glad you are here! Whether you are visiting for the first time or here for your thousandth time, take time to look through the bulletin to prepare for worship. Some elements may be more familiar or entirely new to you but they are based on biblical patterns and God's promises to meet with us.

A Note for those who do not trust Jesus Christ

Welcome! Since the very beginning of the church unbelievers have been present and welcome in Christian worship. Christianity is not about secrets. We seek to clearly proclaim the life-changing news of Jesus. Please do not feel pressure to recite or sing things that you do not believe, or give anything to the collection. We pray that God blesses you as you observe our worship and uses it to draw you nearer to himself through Jesus by the Holy Spirit.

Welcoming Children at Trinity

The way we welcome children in church affects the way they respond to the Church, God and to others. We want them to know that they are at home in this place of worship.

To the parents of our young children,

Welcome! Your children's presence honors Jesus. God's word and promises are for them. Find places to sit that work well for you to explain the parts of the service to them and where they might be able to see. Remember, even at the youngest age, our covenant children are marked by Christ and are deserving recipients of his ordinary means of grace. Pray, sing, and listen so your children can see and imitate your worship of our great God. We do encourage you to consider those worshipping around you as you parent your children, but when you have to leave with your little ones, please come back if the child is able to return to worship. Disruptions with children are expected and we want our children in worship.

To the members of our church,

Raising children in the Lord is hard work. As you worship with families with children, smile, welcome the children, ask their names, and remember to pray for them. Consider how you can assist and relieve some pressure on the families. Be patient with children as they grow in their focus and attention in worship. Our Lord points to children as examples for how we should enter his presence and receive the Kingdom. And remember that children are the future of the church.

Nursery is provided for children aged 0-3 years old from 10:00 AM to the end of service.

Junior Church is for children age 4 to 1st Grade. Children begin the 10:15AM Worship Service with their parents and are dismissed to Junior Church during the hymn before the sermon. The children then have a time of prayer, singing, Bible teaching, and coloring.

God's Word Directing Our Life & Worship

Welcome & Announcements

Galatians 2:20

I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Call to Worship

Revelation 19:6-7a

Then I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude, like the roar of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, crying out,

For the Lord our God
the Almighty reigns.
Let us rejoice and exult
and give him the glory.”

*Profession of Faith

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

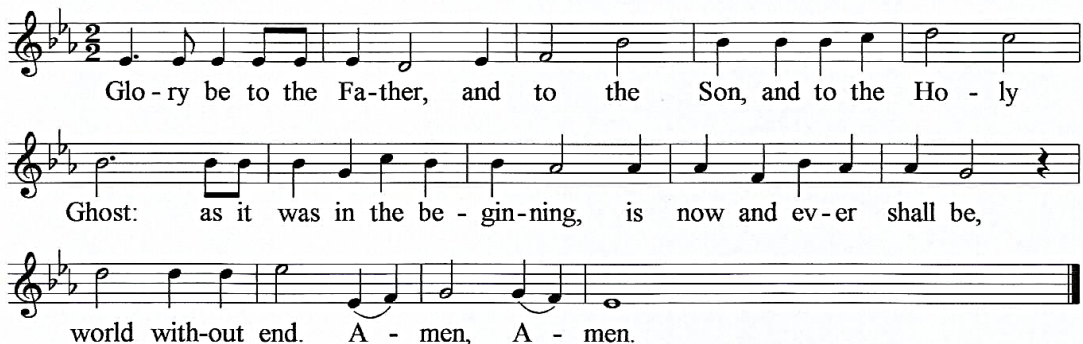

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father; by whom all things were made; who for us and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary, and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried; and the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father; and He shall come again, with glory, to judge both the living and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets; and we believe in one holy catholic† and apostolic church; we acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins; and we look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

God's People Facing Their Sin

Call to Confession

1 John 1:8

If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

Confession of Sin

O Lord, How many are our iniquities and our sins? Make us know our transgression and our sin. Make us know our sins of omission and commission, our intentional and unintentional sins, our sins against you and others, our sins of the heart, mind, and body. Make us know our sins, O Lord, so we might better know your love for us in Jesus Christ; so we might cling to the cross as our only hope for salvation, as the place where your mercy and justice kiss, and the kiss of your mercy, like a burning coal that is taken with tongs from the altar and placed upon our lips, cleanses us from all our sins, atones for all our iniquities, and removes all our guilt and shame. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

1 John 1:9

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

God's People Offering Their Lives to Him

Song of Reflection

Awake, My Soul, in Joyful Lays Quartet

Samuel Medley, 1782
LOVING-KINDNESS, 1831

*Awake, My Soul, in joyful lays, and sing you great Redeemer's praise.
He justly claims a song from me. His lovingkindness is so free.
Lovingkindness, lovingkindness, his lovingkindness is so free.*

*He saw me ruined in the fall, yet loved me notwithstanding all,
And saved me from my lost estate, his lovingkindness is so great.
Lovingkindness, lovingkindness, his lovingkindness is so great.*

*Through mighty hosts of cruel foes, where earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along. His lovingkindness is so strong.
Lovingkindness, lovingkindness, his lovingkindness is so strong.*

*So when I pass death's gloomy vale, and life and mortal pow'rs shall fail,
O may my last expiring breath his lovingkindness sing in death.
Lovingkindness, lovingkindness, his lovingkindness sing in death.*

*Then shall I mount, and soar away to the bright world of endless day;
There shall I sing, with sweet surprise, his lovingkindness in the skies.
Lovingkindness, lovingkindness, his lovingkindness in the skies.*

Morning Prayer and The Lord's Prayer

Matthew 6:9B-13 (KJV) (ALT.)

“Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.” For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Ezekiel 18:27

Confession of Sin

Adapted from Prone to Wander

Loving heavenly Father, you have dealt kindly and patiently with us, and we should worship you alone, with joy and gratitude, every moment of every day. Your word should delight us, and your law should motivate us to obedience, all day, every day. Yet, Lord, we are great sinners, who wander and run from you often. We regularly exchange your truth for lies because we do not want to worship and obey you. Rather, we want to be our own ruler, our own god! Many times each day we turn from you toward the idols that enchant us, bowing before them and hoping that they will make us happy or bring us some peace. We will admit that too often we treasure your gifts (our gods of worship) instead of treasuring you. O Father—our loving heavenly Father!—have mercy on us, for we are weak and always in need of your new morning and afternoon and evening mercies. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Psalms 103:8-12

The Lord is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
He will not always chide,
nor will he keep his anger forever.
He does not deal with us according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our iniquities.
For as high as the heavens are above the earth,
so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;
as far as the east is from the west,
so far does he remove our transgressions from us.

A Note on Worship

Worship is all about meeting with God through Jesus Christ. Our worship services are based on God's promises, biblical patterns and elements and historical forms.

Covenant Renewal - There is a pattern to worship of our triune God in the Bible which is often seen in what have been called covenant renewal ceremonies. God is the initiator and graciously speaks to his people and his people respond. In worship, the Father seeks his redeemed people, in Jesus Christ, by the Holy Spirit, according to the word of God.

Required Elements - Worship according to the word of God can be summarized in large part by saying that we: Pray the Word, Sing the Word, Hear the Word and See the Word in Baptism and The Lord's Supper. What each of these look like and in what order we do them, we have freedom to choose what is most helpful to our people.

Effective Tradition - Freedom in choosing the circumstances and order of our worship service does not mean we think it doesn't matter. Christians have been worshiping for nearly two millennia and we seek to be faithful stewards of the traditions and practices that we have inherited as far as they wisely and practically obey the Scriptures and serve the people.

A Note on the Church and Beliefs

What is the church? It's not an institution of human invention or a building, rather, the Bible tells us it is the gathering of God's chosen people into the body of Christ as a temple of the Holy Spirit. And so we seek to be ruled in all things by the word of God as summarized in the standards of our church communion the Presbyterian Church in America. We have doctrinal standards in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms and a form of government in our Book of Church Order. These are all in submission to the Scriptures which is our ultimate authority in all matters. Find out more at <https://pcanet.org/>
