

This Week at Westminster

Welcome guests! We're delighted that you've come to worship with us here at Westminster this morning. We pray that God will bless you richly through the service and the welcome of our congregation and that you'll worship with us again soon.

Adult Sunday School at Westminster: This Sunday we continue our adult Sunday school class in the sanctuary discussing The Marks of a Healthy Church.

This morning's worship in song is led by our Adult Sanctuary Choir complemented by a Young Adult Choir comprised of some of our high school and college students. The choir anthem will also include the addition of the congregation with the combined choirs. Please join together in rousing praise to our Glorious King as we "teach and admonish one another..., singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in our hearts to God." Praise God for the musical talent he has gathered at WPC!

The most recent edition of By Faith is available for pick-up in the lobby today. By Faith is the official magazine of the PCA and is chock-full of interesting and helpful articles to assist you in your Christian growth. The magazine is free and first-come, first-serve, so grab a copy for you and your family today!

† The Call to Worship

 Psalm 34:1-10

Leader: I will extol the Lord at all times; his praise will always be on my lips.

People: My soul will boast in the Lord; let the afflicted hear and rejoice.

Leader: Glorify the Lord with me; let us exalt his name together.

People: I sought the Lord, and he answered me; he delivered me from all my fears.

Leader: Those who look to him are radiant; their faces are never covered with shame.

People: This poor man called, and the Lord heard him; he saved him out of all his trouble.

Leader: The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him, and he delivers them.

People: Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.

Leader: Fear the Lord, you his saints, for those who fear him lack nothing.

People: The lions may grow weak and hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no good thing.

† The Hymn of Praise

When Morning Gilds the Skies #167

† The Invocation and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth,

As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

† The Confession of Faith

 Romans 8:31b-39

If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died – more than that, who was raised – who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger or sword? As it is written, “For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.” No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Silent Confession of Personal Sins

The Corporate Confession of Sin

“O Lord God, who inhabits eternity, the heavens declare your glory, the earth your riches, the universe is your temple. Your presence fills immensity and you have created life for your own pleasure. I come to you in the all-prevailing name of Jesus, with nothing of my own to plead, no works, no worthiness, no promises. I am often straying, often knowingly opposing your authority, and often abusing your goodness. Subdue in me the love of sin, let me know the need for restoration as well as forgiveness, in order to serve and enjoy you forever. I thank you for your riches to me in Jesus.” Amen
